

THE YOUTH MINISTRY

Greetings on behalf of Gospel Light Youth Ministry!

COVID-19 has affected all of us. In a crisis like this where we cannot do “church” the way we used to, it is a wonderful time to exercise practical wisdom and explore creative methods, as our goal is still leading youth into a life-changing relationship with Jesus.

Since early April, we transited our worship services, leadership training, Care Groups (CGs), and Discipleship Groups to the online Zoom platform. God led us to decentralize our ministry meetings into four separate CGs, allowing more youths to step up and lead worship, share their testimonies, host games, and facilitate discussions. I am glad to see the leaders stepping up to minister to the youth in this season! Praise God for them!

We have just finished an expository sermon series on James, in which assistant youth ministry leader Daniel Yip and I recorded videos and the CG leaders facilitated the session with their respective groups. All of us greatly enjoyed the journey through James, as it communicates practical wisdom on how to live our lives as genuine believers even today.

As phase 2 of the COVID-19 measures kicked in, some CGs began limited meetups in groups of 5 for fellowship (with safe distancing practices). We look forward to the time when the whole ministry can gather again as one united family. Moving forward, we are planning outreach activities to engage the youth and their unsaved friends and family with the gospel, while adhering to health and safety requirements.

Do continue to keep the Youth Ministry in prayer as there are many challenges and uncertainties in this season. Additionally, with the rise of mental health issues in Singapore, the church has not been spared. Please pray that God will grant us wisdom and love to journey with those who are struggling in this area in this season too. Thank you all!

• GOSPEL LIGHT CATECHISM!

What kind of church is Gospel Light? Who are we really and what do we believe in? Although we have a statement of faith, it is too brief to communicate clearly our beliefs. The Pastors at Gospel Light have written this modern version of a catechism for the church:

EXPOSITORY STUDY – 2 JOHN

We will begin studying a new book of the Bible, the epistle of 3 John. At this lesson, we will have an introduction of this short epistle and will go through 3 John 1-4. These first four verses constitute the opening salutation and consists of three parts of very unequal length. The first part, identifying the writer, receives no expansion (v. 1a); the second part, naming the reader, receives some expansion (v. 1b); the third part, setting forth the writer's prayer for the reader, receives considerable expansion (vv. 2-4). The structure of the opening salutation underlines the writer's deep love and warm concern for the reader.

We encourage you to join us online to study God's Word. Newcomers are welcome.
