

The Great Commission

Mat 28:16-20

Matthew 28:16

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

Matthew 28:17

And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted.

Matthew 28:18-20

And Jesus came and said to them,

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Go therefore and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Go therefore and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of
the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

REVELATION
THE KING

The image features a golden crown with thorns on its base, set against a blue sky with white clouds and a rocky, greyish-blue landscape. The crown is positioned on the left side of the frame. The text 'THE KING'S SPEECH' is written in a golden, serif font on the right side of the frame. The word 'THE' is smaller and positioned above 'KING'S'.

The witness explained, "The name said, Matthew published his own Gospel among the Hebrews on their own tongue, when Matthew were preaching the Gospel in Rome and founding the church there. After their departure, Matthew the disciple and interpreter of Jesus, himself handed down in writing the substance of Matthew's preaching. Matthew set down in a book the things preached by his teacher. Then Matthew also leaned on his breast, his Gospel while he was living at Ephesus in Asia."

There were still some troubling parts of the gospels that I needed to clarify. In particular the different genres they presented.

"When I go to the Matthew look in the biography section, don't see the same kind of writing seen in the gospels," I said, "If somebody writes a biography, they thoroughly describe
