

HOW TO DO A BIBLE STUDY (NEW CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PROGRAMME SERIES)

Our Christian Education Programme (CEP) series this year starts on 9th January. We're excited, and also glad for the enriching experience it's been for many who attended the live-stream sessions and participated in our weekly Q&A over the course of 2020.

We asked Pastor Jason some questions about his new series "How To Do A Bible Study!"

1) Why have you chosen this topic to kickstart 2021?

I believe conducting consistent Bible studies is the best way to help people know God. Whether you are a small group leader, a parent or a Sunday School teacher, knowing how to do Bible study well is an essential skill. In fact, Bible study is often the best way to share the gospel with seekers. If we are to be effective in our mission of "Leading generations into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ", then we must know how to conduct effective Bible studies. I trust this short and punchy CEP series will help you start the year right.

2) What are some principles we should abide by when leading a bible study?

In short, I will highlight four things: Content, Clarity, Connection and Conviction. In fact, these are all applicable to a preacher too. I hope you will join us in this four-part series (each session is just 15 minutes) to learn more.

3) How do we make a bible study exciting and accessible?

I think if we can follow the four principles listed above, and are prayerful for the people joining in the study, it will be profitable

4) What can we look forward to in this new series?

I hope to share the principles and practices I have learned over the years when it comes to planning, preparing and conducting Bible studies (and even sermons). I will also be introducing you to the free and easily accessible Bible resources that I use for my own message preparation. I trust that this series will equip you to serve God better.
