

INSIGHTS INTO BEHAVIOURAL ADDICTION AND POSITIVE PARENTING

Behavioural addictions are often not well understood. This has led to many misconceptions, and a misplaced fear of those who are recovering from behavioural addictions. The church is uniquely placed to reach out, help and disciple individuals who have recognised their powerlessness over their addictions and have turned to God and the church for help. Join us as we learn about what behavioural addiction is, and how we can better understand and be of Christian service to them.

“.. It is important to guide our children to Christ, build Godly families at home with the truth taught in Scripture.”

Parenting is complex and is seldom taught, but rather learnt from one’s own experience. However, how do we know if we are being too permissive or strict? Does it matter how I discipline my child? How can couples, grandparents and other family members be on the same page when it comes to parenting? How do I manage my emotions when disciplining my child? Is my child just going through a phase or is there more to this “phase” that they are going through? These are some questions that every parent wonders about, but either does not ask or feels they need not be addressed as these will blow away as the child grows. Join us as we explore some concrete parenting skills from the evidence-based Positive Parenting Program. As Christians, it is important to guide our children to Christ, and build godly families at home with the truth taught in Scripture.

• BEGINNING INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY (BIBS)

A poignant love story: of marriage and children, of adultery and divorce.

This story in Hosea is not only an account of the prophet and his family but also the history about the Lord God and the people of Israel. So how would the story end?

Beginning in January 2021, we will be exploring the Book of Hosea to discover the outcome of the story and to sense the heartbeat of God - his unfailing love and tender mercies - that we may know this God who loves us while we were weak, while we were sinners, while we were enemies.

Classes are conducted via Zoom
Dates: Every Monday, starting 4 Jan.
Time: 7:30pm to 9:00pm
Instructor: Brother Michael Lau

We will be using the study guide from Precept NISS: Finding Hope When Life Seems Dark for Part A to C. Book costs: $12.

Please register via the link.

CLASSES AND TRAINING

• EXPOSITORY STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

We will be studying Mark 2:1-12 as well as revising what we have learned earlier. The ministry of Jesus had resulted in tremendous popular enthusiasm and curiosity. But with the religious leaders among the Jews, the Servant of the Lord made an entirely different impression. They found many things in His words and deeds which aroused their hostility. Mark now depicts the causes and early display of that hostility. The opposition manifested itself in a series of charges against Jesus, coming with mounting intensity. The scribes were offended by Jesus' claim to forgive sins. We encourage as many of you to join us online. This would be a good time and opportunity for newcomers to join as we have just only started on a new book.
