

INTRODUCING OUR CHILDREN MINISTRY WORKER (HANNAH)

We are excited to introduce Hannah who will serve in Children's Ministry! As she will be serving in a full-time capacity, we asked her some questions about her spiritual journey so far.

1) Tell us a little about what you were doing before joining us as a staff?

Before joining GLCC as staff, I was studying at Singapore Bible College doing a Masters in Intercultural Studies. I had initially planned to go back to Thailand for missions after my studies, but God has led me to the local mission field here within Gospel Light.

2) What are your reasons for choosing full-time ministry?

After graduating I spent a few years in the corporate world. At that time, I felt conflicted as I was communicating a message and lifestyle I did not agree with. While serving in Thailand, I encountered the Word of God anew and rediscovered the real message I wanted to communicate – the gospel of Jesus. I realized that I didn't just want a job or career, but I wanted to continue serving God in full-time ministry.

3) What were some obstacles you faced before choosing this vocation?

Although I struggle with worries about personal finances and future uncertainties, I believe this is all part of my faith journey, trusting that God will take care of all my needs as I serve Him. I am thankful for the people who journey with me and constantly point me back to the Word whenever I lapse into these worries.

This vocation is also very different from what most of my peers and relatives are doing. By worldly standards, I may seem to have "fallen behind" in career, housing, financial plans and even marriage (though this is about to change!) – yet I am reminded again in 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 and Colossians 3:2, to persevere and keep my mind set on the things above.

Thankfully, my parents have been supportive of my decision. I am especially blessed by my mum's sharing about how God had convicted her heart that I belong to God first, and she has been actively supporting my ministry work thus far.

4) What are you most excited about in your full-time role?

I'm excited to be serve in Children's Ministry as it is perhaps the largest mission field within GLCC. Many of the children have heard the gospel, but have yet to believe. This process of planting gospel seeds and nurturing faith is a long-term work in partnership with the whole church, and I am both hopeful and excited to be serving the church by supporting families – both parents and children, in this gospel ministry.

Able to commit to serving at least 1 Sunday per month? Step forth and serve! There are no other prerequisites. To find out more and to register, please click on the respective links below.

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

This Tuesday (12 January), we will be examining the Sabbath in Mark 2:23-3:6. Jesus' opponents found another ground for antagonism in His failure to adhere to their rigid Sabbath regulations. All the synoptics record two successive incidents of conflict between Jesus and the Pharisees on this point. In the first event, the enemies charged Jesus with permitting His disciples to do what they regarded as a Sabbath violation; in the second, He performed a healing in open disregard of their Sabbath regulations.
