

A PASSION FOR PRAYER

Have you ever been in one of those discussion groups where everyone complains about how hard it is to pray, telling each other that the issues of life so easily crowd out our prayer lives? For a long time, I experienced this disconnect between the Bible and my own prayer life. But there must be something that we are missing - something that we have yet to understand and which has created a gap between God's word, God's early church and us. As Christians who experienced the life-changing gospel and the work of the Holy Spirit, our prayer lives should look more victorious!

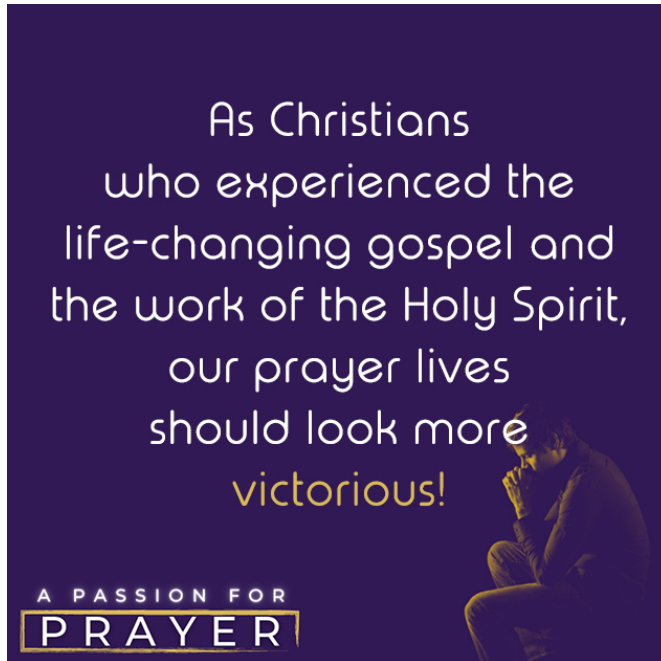

One of the best memories of my parents is of their prayer lives. I would wake up every morning and walk past the living room and see Mum on her knees praying, then the study and see Dad doing the same. They would spend hours in prayer, while I found it hard to even spend 5 minutes in prayer! I realised that they understood something about prayer that I didn't. There was something missing in my understanding of prayer, God and myself which led me not to pray.

During the lockdown last year, God really convicted me about my prayer life. And I spent those months listening to every single resource I could possibly find on prayer. As my understanding of prayer grew, breakthroughs came in my prayer life. I am excited to share this with all of you in our new Christian Education Programme (CEP) series starting 27 Feb. Called "A Passion for Prayer", I will be covering:

1. The What of prayer: What exactly is prayer?
2. The Who of prayer: Our identity as children of God in prayer
3. The How of prayer: How to pray and how not to pray
4. The Why of prayer: Why Christians pray and "If God is sovereign, why pray?"

Come join us to uncover the theology of prayer - what God has taught us about prayer in His Word. A right understanding will be played out in a right living out of our faith. As we attempt to bridge the gap in our understanding of prayer, may our prayer lives be forever changed!
