COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN THE NEW NORMAL

During the circuit breaker last April, the Lord showed us new community engagement opportunities such as the Migrant Worker Outreach and the Safe, Sound, Sleeping Places (S3P) homeless shelter program.

Since May, we have adopted five factory-converted dormitories in Tuas which house a total of 1,000 migrant workers. Many Telugu brothers from Telugu Christian Gospel Church (TCGC) also live there. Over the last six months, we delivered care packs, snacks, a Deepavali dinner and Christmas/New Year gifts to them.

With prayerful inputs from Pastor Jacob Bethapudi, the team decided to target dormitories we previously collaborated with, like Tuas South and Westlite. On 26 December, we successfully organized ‘Celebrate Christmas @ Tuas South’ for 30 migrant workers. Some TCGC Telugu brothers living in a particular cluster were asked to invite their friends. This provided an opportunity for pre-believers to encounter acts of kindness and the love of Christ through GLCC and TCGC volunteers. Praise God for His grace and mercies as the event was organized in less than a week.

Our 2021 strategy is to organize events and outings in various dormitories where our TCGC Telugu brothers reside during festive celebrations like the Lunar New Year, Good Friday and Easter, Labour Day, as well as National Day. In addition, we are distributing gifts during various festive seasons to these brothers, as well as additional packs and gifts to bless their friends. We pray that these acts of kindness will be bridge builders for sowing the Gospel.

With six more events later this year, we need more volunteers. We are thankful for the team of more than 30 who stepped up to help with Christmas and Celebrate Lunar New Year @ Westlite! Please continue to pray for favour and wisdom as we work with the dormitory management, as well as the Ministry of Manpower and their Assurance, Care and Engagement (ACE) teams.

Meanwhile, we currently house three women in Hall 2 under our S3P program. The hall can take up to six women and we may open Hall 1, as we are the only shelter exclusively housing women. We need female church members or worshippers living in Punggol and Sengkang with a passion for reaching the homeless to create a greater impact.

We are also praying for the authorities to give us the green light to resume Club 39 (GLCC’s Youth Club), Ping Pong Ministry and Silver Joy Ministry (previously Breakfast Ministry). With restrictions on food and fellowship in the church building, we need to find new and creative ways to build bridges with the community.

‘Go For Christ’ in Punggol and beyond!

(Community Engagement)

• GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

Liar, Lunatic or Lord? Why is this Jewish carpenter’s legacy so enduring and compelling? Though many characters of history and myth have been compared to him, none can share in his allure. Close to 2000 years have passed since Jesus’ recorded death and rising from the grave. Yet the message and mission of Jesus is as astounding today as it was centuries before. Join us as we remember the Cross of Christ this Good Friday.

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

This Tuesday (23 March), we will study Mark 5:1-20. Jesus and His companions were swiftly brought back from the spiritual elation of the stilling of the storm to depressing human reality when they were confronted by a man possessed by evil spirits. Through this man's encounter with Jesus as Jesus cast out the evil spirits in him, the man had not only experienced alleviation of his satanic affliction but also have become a true believer in Jesus. He accepted the lordship of Christ in his life and proceeded to proclaim Christ with energy and effectiveness.
