

OUR YOUTH MINISTRY IN 2021

God's Leadership

This year, the Youth Ministry desires to find a "new norm" in leading youths into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ. Since many COVID-19 restrictions will continue for some time, we need to create a "new norm" instead of hoping that things return to usual. The last year has shown the importance of having strong small group dynamics through the Care Group format. The "new norm" will mean (a) having small and flexible Care Groups in groups of eight, (b) finding new and creative ways to engage non-believers with the Gospel, and (c) holding regular training and equipping sessions with leaders via Zoom.

God's Mercy Displayed

God has always been gracious to us. Last year was challenging, as we had to constantly adapt to the ever-changing situation. However, despite the COVID-19 restrictions, God has been growing His church. Newcomers have joined us every week. Some are friends of church youths, while others are youths and their parents in the neighbourhood. Some were also participants in December's Amazing Race Outreach event. God has also preserved our youth leaders, growing them in maturity and steadfastness throughout this season. Praise God for these areas of grace!

God's Will Be Done

Kindly keep us in prayer, as the increase in newcomers also means more leaders are required. Also, we are planning to host an in-house drama production during the June school holidays, to showcase how satisfaction and meaning in life can only be found in our Lord Jesus Christ. We are praying that the hundreds of youths who have been invited will be impacted by the life-changing Gospel.

We want to encourage the church to continue to invest in the next generation! We don't want to see a generation who doesn't know the Lord (Judges 2:10). This generation of young people need role models and leaders who fear and love the Lord. They don't just want to hear it, they want to see it in the lives of God's people. I pray that as a church, we will set an example for them to follow, by the grace of God!

Hope that you will come alongside us to pray and invest in the next generation

CROSS FIT: Fit our souls>carry our crosses (Church Camp 2021)

Church camp will be held from Fri 11 June (8pm) till Sun 13 June (11am). Under the new normal, church camp will be a hybrid of onsite camp as well as house-based camps. Children's camp (P1 to P6) will take place at our Punggol building from Sat 12 June (10am) till Sun 13 June (11am). Church camp is a day camp, no stay over. More details to follow.

HOSTS NEEDED FOR CHURCH CAMP

We are looking for Gospeliters who are willing to open their homes during Church Camp to accommodate another 8 camp participants per home. You will need wifi and a smart TV/display large enough for group viewing. Hosts are not required to facilitate discussion. The timeslots that your home will be open are as follows:

Fri 11 June: 8pm - 10pm
Sat 12 June: 10am - 6pm
Sun 13 June: 9am - 12:30pm

If you are keen to open your house, please write in to shine@gospellight.sg or SMS 9117 6000.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

Liar, Lunatic or Lord? Why is this Jewish carpenter's legacy so enduring and compelling? Though many characters of history and myth have been compared to him, none can share in his allure. Close to 2000 years have passed since Jesus' recorded death and rising from the grave. Yet the message and mission of Jesus is as astounding today as it was centuries before. Join us as we remember the Cross of Christ this Good Friday.

Date: Friday, 2 April | Venue: Shine Auditorium

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

This Tuesday (30 March), we will study Mark 5:21–43 regarding two further miracles portraying the unique nature of Jesus as Lord over disease and death - Jesus healing a woman with a haemorrhage and Jesus raising Jairus' daughter from the dead. Both were humanly hopeless cases, but human despair and helplessness served only to reveal the greatness of God's salvation through Jesus Christ.
