

ORDINATION OF BROTHER SIN YU FEI
13 JUNE 2021

It is our joy and privilege as a church to announce the ordination of Yu Fei to the office of the Pastor on 13 June 2021. He has been examined by the Board of Elders on 1st May in the ordination council regarding his character, doctrine, convictions, competence and gifting, and we are all very thankful to God for raising Yu Fei up for the gospel ministry.

I've known Yu Fei for many years now. He was first saved in our church's youth ministry as a teenager when he came in with his friends and schoolmates. He then joined our church's full-time 1-year Bible school training, before coming on staff as our youth ministry leader. He has served in this capacity with distinction all these years. We have also journeyed together in a small discipleship group for 3 years and it was a joy to know him even more personally and intimately there.

Yu Fei is uniquely gifted in evangelism and shepherding. God has given him a generous heart for the youths. Over the years, I've seen him grow in wisdom and discernment, and I believe you all can also see his competence in teaching and preaching God's Word. He lives simply, and is generous with the people he serves. He is not a "hireling", but one who truly demonstrates what it means to be a shepherd who will lay down his life for the sheep.

Besides this upcoming ordination, Yu Fei will also celebrate another significant event in his life. Thank God for bringing both him and Hannah (our assistant leader in children ministry) together and I am excited for their wedding in July this year! Please pray for them too that their marriage will resource and reflect the gospel to God's glory.

I'm proud to have a fellow brother, colleague, pastor (soon-to-be) and friend in Yu Fei. I believe God has gifted Yu Fei to our church. Please continue to love, support, encourage and pray for him, that he will continue to lead another generation into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ.

To Yu Fei, I sound like a broken recorder, but let me just remind you to "drink in the gospel, live out the gospel, and give out the gospel." Never let achievements override alignment with God. Take care of your depth, and trust God for the breadth of ministry. Abide in Jesus, for only then will there be true abundance. Sink in deep roots, and God will then grant great fruit. God bless you, my brother!

EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

This Tuesday, 8 June 2021, we will be covering Mark 9:14-29 which records Jesus healing a mute boy with an evil spirit. All three Synoptic Gospels that record the Transfiguration also record this miracle as the next event. Luke explains more precisely that it was the next day (Luke 9:37). It provided a visual reminder that the glories of the messianic kingdom to come must not make us unaware of present problems or of our complete dependence upon God's power to meet those problems. Please join us for our Bible Study to learn about this miracle by clicking on the following link:

SERMON REFLECTIONS

Gen 23 The First Funeral

6 June 2021
By Pastor Jason

The Bible is honest about death. Death is a painful consequence of man's sin. But because of God and His gospel, Christians can face death with a very different mindset today.

In this account of the first funeral in the Bible, we see that a funeral can be sad, but it is also sweet to those who are of the faith. And more than that, it can even be a statement (of faith). So, instead of wallowing in sorrow like the world when we face death, the Christian looks to the gospel promises and rejoices even in the midst of that sorrow. May our funerals, and especially our lives, be testimonies of faith in God's promises.

Check out this sermon to find out more.

Discussion questions:

1. Share a take-home message for you in this sermon
2. Share how your view of death has changed as a result of your faith.
3. Share what kind of spiritual legacy you want to and/or are leaving behind
