

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PROGRAM: WORSHIP

Everyone engages in worship, whether they realise it or not. Some worship in churches, others in temples, football stadiums, rock concerts, or through bank accounts. God has commanded us to worship Him alone, so we know the topic of worship is central to our faith. However, if you were to ask a group of people "What is worship?", each person will likely give a different answer. Even Christians from similar backgrounds and theological convictions may have differing opinions on what worship is, and how it is expressed.

The Bible did not give us a 'one-size-fits-all' definition of worship, nor does it prescribe the exact way worship should be conducted today. What the Bible does give are principles for worship, which allow us to grasp the essence of what worship is. Real worship can be thought of as encompassing our attitudes and our actions.

The right heart attitude is to worship God in spirit and in truth. [John 4:23-24] The woman at the well was concerned about the place to worship, but Jesus taught that worship starts from the heart as we meditate on the truths of God revealed through Scripture.

Understanding who God is and what He has done for us will motivate us to worship God in the right manner, because we come to see His surpassing worthiness. The 'actions' of worship will naturally be expressed through praise and living for God's glory [Heb 13:15]. Furthermore, as believers, we are blessed when we worship because we are connected to the true and living God, the source of our joy and fulfilment.

Because we are saved into a body of believers, worship is very much a corporate experience as it is as an individual one. Love should be the underlying principle binding our hearts in unity, as we direct praise toward God as a body of Christ. There is freedom in our expression, but it is balanced with a care not to stumble others. [Rom 14:13].

In summary, worship is the heart's response once we know God and what He has done for us, as this results in praise and living for His glory. Let's be a people known for our authentic worship, whether as individuals or as a church.

• WORSHIP (CEP SERIES)

Worship can mean different things to different people. The bible did not give us a 'one size fits all' definition of worship, which can lead to disagreements between believers on what worship should be. The bible does however give us great principles for worship that allow us to grasp the essence of what worship really is about.

Join us in a 4-week series as we discover principles by looking at: 1) What is worship 2) Why we worship 3) How we worship as individuals 4) How we worship as a congregation. We hope this would serve as a foundation to worship God with the freedom and truth as revealed in scripture.

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF MARK

This Tuesday, 3 August, we will be studying Mark 10:11-31. Mark 10:11-16 touches on Jesus' teaching on children and Mark 10:17-31 touches on Jesus' teaching about wealth. These are very important practical lessons of how we should live our lives as Christians. Do come join us at 8pm for Bible Study to learn what Jesus is teaching us. The zoom dial-in details for our session are as follows:
