

FOUR QUESTIONS WITH PASTOR JASON LIM

In the past months of 2021...

1) What have you learned about your ministry?

COVID-19 took away mass church gatherings. More than ever, we must appreciate the wisdom and timelessness of Jesus' ministry model - A Few Good Men. The key strategy of worldwide evangelism and ministry is not about drawing huge crowds into stadiums. It is in life-on-life discipleship, the way Jesus poured His life into 12 ordinary men. His strategy was so effective that after Jesus had been with them, trained them and then left them, they turned the world upside down with their gospel ministry! Let's learn to give our lives to a few good men (or women) in a quiet, humble and faithful way like Jesus did. That's how we can lead generations into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ.

2) What have you learned about God?

God is a God of wrath but also mercy. I see that He is a God of wrath - judging this world of sin with the many calamities, diseases, and sufferings of this life. But at the same time, He is a God of mercy - these judgments are given so that we may perhaps be reminded of His wrath and our sin, repent, and be saved! After all, He gave Jesus His son to bear the sins of those who will repent and believe.

3) What have you learned about yourself?

I'm so thankful that I've been blessed with so much for so many years, before COVID-19 came and changed some life routines. (Indeed, even with COVID-19, God has continued to bless my family and I with so much)

4) What have you learned about leadership?

Leadership is being like Jesus.
He led with a purpose to seek and save that which is lost for the glory of God.
He led with His life, not just His lips.
He led through extreme pressures, trusting in the sovereign hand of His Father.
He led by laying down His life for His sheep.
He is leading the world (until the end of the age) by leading a few good men in His time.
May we all follow Jesus, and learn to lead like Jesus.
