A BULLET-PROOF MARRIAGE?

Families all around us are crumbling every day.

Yielding to the enemy and throwing life away.

Bind our lives together, guard us with Your truth,

When the struggle seems too great,

Lord, keep our eyes on You.

- Lord, Bless Our Home

We sing this song in church as a prayer for God to bless and protect our homes. More than ever, marriages need to be centred in the Gospel. The Family Life Ministry, under the guidance of Pastor Kay Hong, seeks to lead families into a life-changing relationship with Jesus. This is done by connecting with them, equipping them, as well as showing from the Bible how family members can support one another in this journey of faith. We look forward to developing a specific focus on fathers, mothers and children in time to come.

One of the ministry's foundational courses is the recurring Bulletproof Marriage Workshop. Over 50 couples have participated, and many went away with a better understanding of what the Bible says about marriage, as well as how to address conflicts and issues. Mentors continue to engage with couples one-on-one after the workshops to support them as they pursue Gospel-centred marriages. Some have experienced breakthroughs in long-held misunderstandings, others in forgiveness, and yet more in discovering God's plan for their lives.

In the recent July workshop, we had couples who were about to get married or newly-married, couples who had just started families, and even a couple who had been married for more than 40 years! While coming from all walks of life and with different priorities, it was clear that we all needed the same Jesus in our marriages.

Do you want to know how to have a bulletproof marriage? Join us in the fourth run of the workshop in November! Come find out what God intends for your marriage and how you can live out a marriage that will shine for Christ.
