WEEKLY BULLETIN

Come Christians, join to sing! Alleluia, Amen!

First and foremost, as believers, worship is all of life. What we do, say and think about in our daily lives forms our worship to God. Paul appeals to the church to present our lives as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God (Rom 12:1-2). Worship is not just about singing songs or gathering for service on Sundays (whether in person or online).

Second, our worship is accepted by a Holy God simply because of His Son's perfect atoning sacrifice on the Cross. Jesus is our means of access and the one who makes our worship acceptable to God (Heb 10:19-22, 1 Pet 2:4-5). The acceptance of our worship is not based on how well we sing, our choice of instruments, the genre of the song, the number of times the chorus is repeated, or in following a particular order of worship based on tradition.

Third, those who worship God must worship in spirit and in truth (John 4:23-24). Christ-exalting worship must be grounded in truth from the Word. True worship also originates from within, from the heart, and must be sincere, being motivated by our love for God and in gratitude for all He has done. A mechanical routine of going through the motions does not honour God. Neither do outward expressions of worship honour God, if it does not come from a genuine heart-posture of worship (Matt 15:8-9).

Jon Chong
Worship Leader

Jonathan grew up in Gospel Light and has the privilege of leading the worship ministry. He's a husband and a father of two. Thanks to their mummy, his daughters' bedtime songs are Jesus Loves Me, The Old Rugged Cross and Only A Boy Named David.

“ True worship also originates from within, from the heart, and must be sincere, being motivated by our love for God and in gratitude for all He has done.
