WEEKLY BULLETIN

gospellight.sg

The purpose of singing worship songs and playing music in our gatherings is to communicate truth from God's Word.

As we praise and sing, we respond with grateful hearts to God (Col 3:16) because He is worthy of praise. We engage in prayer, reflection and confession as we communicate with God (Psa 51:17). We also communicate to one another in song. Our spiritual siblings next to us are edified and reminded of truth as they hear the church family sing (Col 3:16).

I have experienced Sundays when I felt so troubled that I couldn't sing! But hearing the church family sing beside me reminded me of God's love and faithfulness. It helped me lift my voice even in the midst of trouble and suffering.

We look forward to taking small steps towards coming back together again in His will and in His time. I dream of a day when all of us in Gospel Light can sing our heartfelt praises to the One who is worthy!

The COVID-19 pandemic has taken its toll on many of us. For a long time, we've lost the joy of being able to gather together for fellowship. We look forward to taking small steps towards coming back together again in His will and in His time. I dream of a day when all of us in Gospel Light can sing our heartfelt praises to the One who is worthy! When we can all sing with one voice, one heart and in one accord. When we can place our personal preferences aside in love for each other.

As we lead generations into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ, we likewise see generations of believers worshipping as one. When the gathered church on earth gives us a foretaste of the great scene of believers from all tribes, tongues and nations standing before the Throne of God (Rev 7:9-10), singing with the angels, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!"

Until then, whether we gather in Punggol Field Walk or worship from our living rooms during these pandemic times, let's lift our voices to glorify Him and remember these words, "For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen."

Blessings in Christ,
