

WEEKLY BULLETIN

2022 New Year Sermon Series: One Another

In these two years of COVID-19, many are joining online worship services from the comfort of their home. This new format may lull us into thinking that the highlight of the Christian weekly routine is to “watch” the pastor preach!

However, Scripture reminds us, indeed commands us, of the need to fulfill the “one anothers”- to love one another, encourage one another, provoke one another and so on. You cannot do this at home alone on your television or computer screen on Sunday morning!

So, for the 2022 new year sermon series, the church’s pastors and shepherds were led to remind our people that we need to honour and obey the Bible’s “one anothers”. We want to help you see WHY this is so important to the church’s health, and WHAT it all means. We will also show you HOW you can obey these commands effectively.

I have asked the following church leaders to preach on this topic for the first five weeks of January in this order:

1. Elder Frederick Chew - Church Committee Chairman and member of the Board of Elders
2. Brother Luzerne Cheng - Varsity Ministry Leader
3. Brother Daniel Yip - Youth Ministry Assistant Leader
4. Pastor Sin Yu Fei - Youth Pastor
5. Elder Thomas Teh - Head of Pastoral Care and member of the Senior Pastor’s Group

They will also be repeating their messages in our Chinese Congregation.

Please pray for them as they deliver God’s Word. Please pray for our hearts to obey God’s Word. Please pray that we will be a healthier church as we fulfill the “one anothers”.

Christianity is not just about sitting in rows in the church sanctuary.

It is also a lot to do with getting in circles where we can do the “one anothers”.

May you develop meaningful circles in your Christian life as you hear God’s Word!

Blessings
Pastor Jason Lim
