Youth ministry: Investing In the next generation

Praise God for the wisdom and hard work of the youth leadership team in the past year. I'm blessed to see how they were able to adapt and adjust to the frequent changes in COVID-19 regulations. The team served every week tirelessly and sacrificially.

From our work in the past year, I was reminded of these three important lessons for the youth ministry:

- 1) Youth need guidance and support as they navigate the most challenging phase of their development and seek to grow in their walk with Christ. They need Christ-like leaders to serve and guide them, as this is a crucial stage in their formative years. They need leaders who will lead by example in words and conduct, as they are seeking to find their identity.
- 2) Youth need a gospel-centered community that will spur them in the way of the Lord. They desire a community that will love them unconditionally, be patient when they fall behind in their walk, correct them when they sin, and rebuke them with truth and grace when they stray away. Challenging as it may be in this season, meeting face-to-face is still the best platform to meet these needs.
- 3) Youth are not just the future; they are the now too. They have a part to play in God's kingdom as God has called them for the gospel work in their respective areas of influence, such as in school, at home, and even on social media platforms. As a church, we need to believe and invest in them. Ultimately, helping our youth to grow spiritually in their formative years will equip them to make an impact for Christ both now and in their future.

Hope that you will come alongside us to pray and invest in the next generation.

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY – BOOK OF ROMANS

This Tuesday, 11 January 2022, we will embark on the study of a book, the Epistle to the Romans. It is arguably the most important presentation of Christian doctrine in existence. In this lesson, we will do a general introduction of the letter followed by an exposition of Romans 1:1-7. In this short passage, Paul addresses the letter to believers in Rome and describes the presentation he makes as the “gospel of God”. Do come and join us. The Zoom dial-in details for our session are as follows.
