WEEKLY BULLETIN

gospellight.sg

In the past month, Gospel Light Christian Church (GLCC) was mobilized to “Go For Christ” and serve the community over three weekends.

First, on 3rd and 4th December, 197 Gospeliters from Care Groups and the general congregation visited residents in Punggol to distribute Christmas gifts consisting of two custom-designed hand sanitizers for each household. The Gospeliters covered 21 blocks, reaching around 2,500 households. The block visits also provided opportunities for members to fellowship after their labour of love.

The Lord surprised us with the fruit of our labour. A lady who received our gift pack realized that the church was just a few hundred metres away. She and her husband registered for our service and came to worship with us. This is just one story of how our block visits have “reached” those are seeking.

Next, on 11th December, we had the first migrant workers celebration event since Good Friday in April. The team was thankful for the opportunity to bring Christmas celebrations to Tuas South dormitory, after several cancellations because of COVID-19 outbreaks in the community and dormitories.

More than 70 migrant brothers attended the two shows we organized. A Bangladeshi brother expressed to Telugu Christian Gospel Church (TCGC) brother Ramakesava a desire to visit our church. This migrant worker had attended our past outreach events at Tuas South and encountered God’s love through our volunteers. We are thankful for the nine volunteers who came alongside us to anchor the event, especially brother Shane Goh for stepping up as the emcee.

Finally, on 18th December, we distributed Christmas packs to 500 migrant brothers. We are thankful for the 15 groups of Gospeliters (mostly sisters) who baked more than 2,100 cookies and cupcakes as part of a Christmas blessing. With the “GL Delivery” team of five drivers and their faithful assistants, we were able to deliver all the gift packs in less than three hours.

It was a delight to serve alongside the GLCC and TCGC family joyfully as we celebrated the love of God through this Christmas season!

In His service,

Trevor Tan, Head (Community Engagement)
