A RESOLUTION FOR COMMUNITY IN 2022

The English theologian and evangelist John Wesley laid a strong foundation for cell-church explosion. By the end of the 18th century, he had developed more than 10,000 cells groups. And Wesley was of the conviction that anyone who made a decision for Christ would be involved in a small group.

Biblical basis for Small Group

We find much biblical basis for small group community. We see an example in God the Trinity in perfect unity — the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. Eve was given to Adam so that he would not be alone. Jesus started His ministry by forming a small group and built relationships with his disciples, loving and teaching them.

The apostles continued Jesus' model and we see such community in the Book of Acts. Believers gathered in temple courts and houses, engaging in fellowship through worship, prayer, and teaching. They spent time together eating, learning, and spreading the Gospel. They exercised acceptance, love, forgiveness, and service. They confessed sins, prayed together, spoke the truth in gentleness, and held each other accountable for his or her faith.

Blessings of being in a Care Group

We live in a broken world. Social media and technology do not build genuine and deep relationships. And life is about relationships - your vertical relationship with God and your horizontal relationship with others.

The Care Group (CG) is a place where we have opportunities in a smaller group setting to express our faith - to know the truth about who we are and who God is, and how we should live in response to biblical truths. Iron sharpens iron. God often uses the relationships we have for character transformation.

Our perseverance in faith is seen in our commitment and involvement in CG. We take risks by being authentic in our sharing, but being vulnerable establishes intimacy and trust. We can experience God's love and grace through others, leading to freedom and life change.

As we meet, we encourage one another to share how we have seen God in our lives. Providence teaches us that God is in control of everything, and He is the sustainer of life. That gives us boldness and confidence when we come together to pray.

If you are not in a CG, perhaps God is speaking to you to consider that as a resolution for 2022 - to serve and grow in a fellowship community. Find out more at gospellight.sg > connect > care group.

• BEGINNING INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY (BIBS) – THE LETTERS OF JOHN

Of the twenty-seven books in the New Testament, five were authored by John the Apostle. In our study, we will look at three of his letters – to beloved Gaius, to the elect lady and her children and to my little children. Why were these letters written? What challenges were the believers then facing? How might they overcome these challenges?

We will be studying these letters inductively and see how we might be able to apply the principles in these letters in our lives today. Join us for the study of 1 John, 2 John, and 3 John. Your commitment is between one to three hours of personal study and two hours of group discussion each week. The discussion helps us to consolidate our personal studies and address any questions we might have as we reflect on our personal application for life in Christ.

Cost: $15/- for the NISS study guide and Observation Worksheets.
