THE FINAL WORDS OF CHRIST

"It is finished" (John 19:30). What was finished? What did Jesus come to do? Why did He have to die?

This phrase is translated from the Greek word tetelestai, which was commonly written on tax receipts in New Testament times to indicate that a payment had been paid in full. With his last breath, Jesus declared that the debt of our sins that we owed to the Father was paid for in full.

The Bible tells us that Jesus is "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29) and He came "not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). The work of redemption that the Father had given Him was accomplished through His death on the cross. Jesus' death provided atonement for the sins of all who would believe in Him, reconciling us sinful men to the holy God. This was His very mission, for "God made Him who knew no sin, to be sin for us that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

Also completed was the fulfilment of some 300 Old Testament prophecies that pointed to the coming Messiah. Through his suffering on the cross, Jesus proved that He was indeed the promised "seed" who would crush the serpent's head (Genesis 3:15), and the Suffering Servant (Isaiah 53).

"It is finished" – the final words of Christ were a victory cry. With His earthly ministry completed, Jesus declared that God's righteous judgment of our sin and satisfaction of His holy wrath was fulfilled at the cross.

What does his death mean to me?

We who were once "dead in trespasses and sins" are now made "alive with Christ" (Ephesians 2:1, 5). Our debt of sin is paid, and we have been reconciled to the Father, having received His pardon through Christ (2 Corinthians 5:18). We are no longer slaves to sin but are freed to obey and serve Him (Romans 6:18). The work of Christ is a completed work. We can add nothing to it (Hebrews 10). Our sins have been forgiven, Satan's power is broken, God's justice is satisfied. We have peace with God!

As the song 'It Was Finished Upon That Cross' by CityAlight goes:

*Now the curse it has been broken
Jesus paid the price for me
Full, the pardon he has offered
Great, the welcome that I receive
Boldly I approach my Father
Clothed in Jesus' righteousness
There is no more guilt to carry
It was finished upon that cross*

Let us humbly rejoice with grateful praise as we remember that it is finished – upon that cross!

• GOOD FRIDAY 2022

Which is the darkest moment in history? Is it the Covid-19 pandemic, which has claimed over 6 million lives? Was it World War 2 which saw 70 million lives perish? The highest act of love is the giving of the best gift, and, if necessary, at the greatest cost, to the least deserving. That's what God did. At the loss of His Son's life to the totally undeserving, God gave the best gift - the display of the glory of Christ who is the image of God.
