OUR MOTHER SHOWED US MORE OF GOD

In our parents' dining room hangs a line from Proverbs 31:28, "Her children rise up and call her blessed..."

Indeed, we are blessed to have been brought up by our mum, who taught us in the ways of the Lord while we were growing up. We often heard her say: "Remember, everything you do, do all for the glory of God!" Whether it was to encourage us to be a good testimony, in our homework, or even in ministry, our mum would point us to the realities of 1 Cor 10:31.

Our mum made sure we made the things of God a priority. She ensured we were properly dressed and prepared every Sunday to attend Sunday school. It would be ingrained in us that spending Sunday mornings worshipping with the church family was part of a Christian's spiritual life. She played a big role in encouraging us to eventually step out and serve in various ministries and capacities. She would also recall to us our grandmother's encouragement to our dad and her, in their younger days, to also serve.

We've also seen her sacrificial example, serving in various ministries over the years like Sunday school, front desk ministry and other roles. Much of her time now is devoted to looking after the little grandchildren (with our dad), allowing her grateful children to continue with their responsibilities and ministries. We also know that Mum and Dad will continue to pray for us.

While our hearts and lives are changed ultimately by God's working through the Spirit, we give thanks to God for our mum, who showed us more of God through her unconditional love, sacrifice, and care.

It is our prayer that all mothers (and mothers-to-be) in Gospel Light will press on in the meaningful, God-given roles the Lord has placed you in. It may feel overwhelming at times (or most of the time), or you may feel like giving up. Despite our best efforts as parents, our children may still give us sleepless nights and go astray.

Let us hope in God, His sovereign will, and his power to save. And then, press on with the strength, grace and mercy that God supplies in your calling as mothers. May you nurture the little ones to love our Saviour, the One who first loved us and gave Himself for us.

"Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates" – Prov 31:31
