FIVE QUESTIONS WITH PASTOR JASON LIM

1) What is your biggest joy in ministry?

Life change. Seeing people come to Jesus and having their lives changed is such a thrill. "Leading generations into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ" is Gospel Light's mission. It's mine. I hope it's yours too!

2) What has been the most painful lesson(s) you've learnt in ministry?

That I can't change lives. I tried to. And failed. Many times over. I now realize I can't even change my own life. If there is any change (for the better) in myself or anyone, it is the work of God's Spirit alone.

But in our impatience or haste to change the lives of others, we may end up with fleshly plans and methods. And often, the "works of the flesh leads to death" (not quite what it is meant to be in the Bible, but I hope you'll forgive me!).

Access the power of the Spirit in surrender and prayerful dependence. It is not about you. It must be the Spirit of Christ in and through you.

3) What's been your 'secret' to avoid falling into ministry destroying sin?

No secrets. I've preached a few times about fighting sin (especially sexual sins) recently.

- Flee - don't fool around with sin. Avoid temptations.
- Fight - don't give in. At the point of temptation, fight sin in prayer.
- Fortify - we need the "bread" of God's word: in sermons, in studies, in communities.
- Fellowship - we need the "one anothers" and the accountability of Christian community.
- Fulfil - (in the case of marital sex to protect your spouse from sexual temptations).

4) Have you ever wanted to quit pastoral ministry? Can you share why?

Formal "employed" ministry, yes. But not from the discipling, teaching and preaching aspects of God's work. I'd love to be like Paul, serving God and His people, free of charge (1Co 9:18).

5) Knowing what you know today, how would you teach/encourage your younger self?

Don't just know Bible verses and chapters. Get to the gospel! Be centred in the gospel!

Access the power of the Spirit in surrender and prayerful dependence. It is not about you. It must be the Spirit of Christ in and through you.

Understand and follow Jesus in discipleship. Preaching alone is not enough in the Great Commission. Commit your life to a few good men in every season.

Work hard. But no stress. Jesus is the builder of His church!

Blessings
Pastor Jason Lim
