SERVING WHERE THE “SON” ALWAYS SHINES

The children in our Children’s Ministry (Sonshine Club) cannot speak for themselves, so God has spoken for them. I would like to suggest three “I”s to convey what God had said through His Word, to understand why ministry to children is important.

“With the resumption of onsite services, we are seeing a large spike in attendance. We are thankful for this, but are in a great need for volunteers.”

The first “I” is Invitation. The Bible reveals how Jesus related to children, and invited them to come to Him. In Matthew 19:13-15, children were brought to Jesus that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people, but Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them...” Jesus desires and invites children to come to him, and to be unhindered in coming to Him. This also reveals children can come to salvation at an early age.

The second “I” is Identity. We often think of children as the future of the church. Perhaps it might surprise you the Bible says that the believing children are the present church. The apostle Paul recognised this, in Ephesians 6:1 and Colossians 3:20. Paul commands children of the church to obey their parents in the Lord, recognising children as part of the body of believers. Therefore, as fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, we need to equip them for the work of the ministry. To build up the body of Christ, we need to disciple the children as fellow brothers and sisters.

The last “I” is Intentional. Joshua died at the age of 110. He had brought Israel into the Promised Land, and led a generation through many victories. However, after the deaths of Joshua and those who had seen God’s mighty acts, “there arose another generation after them, who did not know the Lord ....”. It is sad that this generation did not pass down the faith, and left subsequent generations ill-equipped. As families, we must intentionally hand down the faith to our next generation, and to subsequent generations.

Our Children’s Ministry, the sonshine CLUB, has been serving the children of Gospel Light throughout the pandemic. With the resumption of onsite services, we are seeing a large spike in attendance. We are thankful for this, but are in a great need for volunteers.

Standing Firm in These Last Days July 2022 Jesus is coming back! What will His coming be like? What about the sufferings, afflictions and persecutions we faced daily? What about those who caused us all these pains? How is God just and righteous in all these circumstances? How then should we reorder our lives in the light of Jesus coming back?

Sign up for the inductive study of the letters of Paul to the church in Thessalonica and see how we might be able to apply the principles in these letters to our lives today. Your commitment is between one to three hours of personal study and two hours of group discussion each week. The discussion helps us to consolidate our personal studies and address any questions we might have as we reflect on our personal application for life in Christ.

Cost: $15/- for the NISS study guide and Observation Worksheets.
