FOUR QUESTIONS WITH PASTOR YU FEI

1) What are your greatest joys in ministry?

My greatest joy is seeing God's children walking in the truth, "owning" their faith and living it out. Also, to see both church youth who used to have a "borrowed faith", and unchurched youth, coming to a life-saving faith in our Lord Jesus Christ!

I'm also reminded that we are to mortify sin by consistently examining our hearts, minds, and lives in the light of the Word of God and under the Holy Spirit's conviction.

2) What are the biggest mistakes you've made in ministry?

I've made mistakes in selecting leaders, and in failing to adequately equip and care for them. For example, I selected youths who were passionate for God, but they were placed in a leadership position too quickly, which resulted in some backlash. On hindsight, for them to lead well, they too need to be shepherded. We need to invest in them to be cared for, trained and developed as we give them the platform to serve.

3) What's been your secret to avoid falling into ministry-destroying sin?

Living out the Spirit-filled life! Fighting sin and having victory over sin is not by my own might and strength, but by relying on the Spirit of God and His empowerment (Colossians 3:5-8). I'm also reminded that we are to mortify sin by consistently examining our hearts, minds, and lives in the light of the Word of God and under the Holy Spirit's conviction. It is a day-to-day, moment-by-moment surrendering to the Spirit's leading, so that I may live a life of obedience rather than sin.

4) Knowing what you know now, what would you have said to yourself when you started pastoring?

To keep the main thing as the main thing - which is the good news of the Gospel, and it should be the motivation for everything I do. I would also encourage myself to prioritize my walk with God before ministry, love my wife like Christ loved the church, invest my time with my leaders and a few good men, preach the Word of God faithfully, and to keep taking steps of faith!
