SECRETS TO A WOMAN'S HEART

A broken family, painful past, and loneliness are some experiences a girl might have. She encounters a different journey in her courtship, which replaces her past with delightful adventures. Her wedding was the door to this new enchanting life. As time passes, she would recall these precious memories, only to realize that they have dissipated. Doubts start to invade her disillusioned heart.

“ The blissful courtship journey lies in your discerning approval of his leadership; letting him decide, accepting his guidance but not without your contribution of many great ideas ”

From the wife's heart – I pray my husband would love me like how Christ loves His church. (Eph 5:25)

a. Express your love to me. It is not the birthday, Christmas gift or anniversary dinner. It is in your simple yet meaningful gestures; calling me to find out how I am, hiding the stalk of flower to surprise me and best of all, leaving those sweet notes. Bring back these antics, dear.

b. Guard me with your spiritual leadership. I remember my friends sharing how their boyfriends expressed their love through expensive dinners and presents. They look surprised when I tell them that I feel your affection when you protect and guide me with your leadership. I admire your deliberate effort in avoiding activities and places that might stumble me. While others look for fun, you consistently seek ways to help me grow. Please continue to protect me with your spiritual leadership.

c. Engage me in intimate communication. I enjoy our dinner table chats and especially our bedtime conversations. But I notice that our communication over the past few years has become more “functional”, where your answers are often “okay” and “not bad”. There have been nights when, while trusting you with the secrets of my heart, I found you snoring away while I was still talking. Give me your time instead of giving it to other things.

d. Encourage me. Familiarity has made us take each other for granted. I fear we are becoming just two individuals living under one roof. This saddens me. Do you know that I still find immeasurable joy when I see your smile of approval, and when I am able to meet your inner needs, I feel so blessed to be your wife? Guide me to be a better helpmeet.

Wife: The blissful courtship journey lies in your discerning approval of his leadership; letting him decide, accepting his guidance but not without your contribution of many great ideas, which you softly and sweetly whisper into his ears.

Husband: Only one important instruction was given to the head of the family.... Love your wife like how Christ loves His church. Let us purpose to do this well. (Eph 5:22-28)
