A LOOK BACK AND AHEAD

We are thankful Gospeliters are adjusting to the new norm for worship. It's wonderful to see the vast majority of our congregation returning for on-site services.

I was just doing a recap and realised July has been jam-packed with activities. The Urban Farming ministry started the ball rolling on 5th July, resuming their activities with Brothers David Wong and Albert Lim helming sessions at our Punggol building and Punggol community plot.

On 11th July, about 200 Gospeliters involved in the Life On Life Missional Discipleship (LOLMD) journey, together with their loved ones, gathered for a time of sharing and casting of vision for the year ahead. May the Lord continue to bless our disciple-making movement!

Newcomers Chit Chat resumed on-site on 17th July, and was oversubscribed. It was a good problem that our staff were outnumbered by newcomers. May we continue to engage and serve many newcomers through this platform effectively, through answering their questions and providing a platform for them to chat with our leaders.

Racial Harmony Day was conducted on 23rd July at Punggol 21 Community Club. Our Filipino congregation dished out 400 bowls of porridge, and the Telugu congregation handed out 1,000 packets of briyani rice. We managed to delight many residents through giving out 1,000 specially sculpted balloons. Balloon sculpting has always been a regular hit at such community events. Our Youth ministry also managed to invite youths to check out Club39. We are thankful for the many volunteers, as this was quite a last-minute event.

In July, our Communications Department launched Telegram and Podcasts to engage the community better, and better minister to the congregation. Now you can search for our latest sermons and news on these online channels.

The rest of 2022 looks to be exciting, with the Mid-Autumn Festival, Church Anniversary and Christmas coming up. Start praying about who you can invite to hear the Gospel! You are also encouraged to save the dates for Church Camp next year – 7th to 10th June - for a time of soaking in God's Word and building bonds with God's family.

Serving together,

Benita Teo
Head (HR & Admin)
