GLCC MISSIONS: SCALABLE, TRANSFERRABLE, GLOBAL

Dear Gospeliters,

It is so exciting to be involving you once again in missions after several years of “strategic silence”.

Five years ago, we moved to our Punggol premises. Our previously centrally-located nomadic church needed time to adjust to the massive new building in a new town. So GLCC Missions, which used to involve Gospeliters actively in missions, decided to step back and allow our members time to adjust to their new environment and responsibilities.

About two years ago, when our members had nicely adjusted and GLCC Missions was ready to re-engage their hearts and minds, the Covid-19 pandemic struck. The huge disruptions to normal missions activities forced us to rethink our strategy for the post-Covid new normal. In the past two years, we totally restructured all activities in the Asian countries we serve in. As it was a time of transition (and some confusion), it was not a good time to re-engage our members.

Today, GLCC Missions invites all Gospeliters to be part of God’s Missions Army. If you subscribe to our weekly bulletin, you would have received a missions newsletter recently. It would have provided an overview of our work. It includes a useful backdrop to what GLCC Missions is all about, and how it has evolved since the church was founded. Over the next few weeks, we will be sharing about the various exciting initiatives God has allowed us to embark on. Meanwhile, check out our new Goducate website!

As we look forward to this era of post-pandemic SCALABLE, TRANSFERABLE, GLOBAL missions, we must first look back at how God has blessed us by providing so many wonderful people who have served faithfully in the past 35 years:

- Pastor Victor Yeo and Elder Leong Lick Tien (Missions Board members from the beginning till now)
- Pastor Mike Redick (Missions Board member and our Global Evangelist)
- Deborah Kow (our first Missions Coordinator)
- Senior Pastor Jason Lim (who gives his 100 per cent support for Missions)
- Elder Frederick Chew (Chairman of GLCC Church Committee whose role is local but heart is missional)

And many, many more “anonymous” Gospeliters who faithfully, sacrificially, and generously give of their time, talent and treasure (so that GLCC Missions has NEVER LACKED resources)

Please pray for:

1. WISDOM for our Missions Leadership to grab the God-given opportunities to “proclaim the Gospel to Asia” and fulfill our part in the Great Commission.
2. ABILITY for our 192 missionaries/workers to adjust to “new-normal” missions methods.
3. HEART of Gospeliters to passionately serve the last, least and lost with their time, talent and treasures.

Your fellow-servant of the only worthy Master,

Paul Choo
Missions Board Chair
