

Sufferings: Grace and Glory

1 Peter 5:10

And after you have suffered a little while,
the God of all grace, who has called you
to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself
restore, confirm, strengthen, and
establish you.

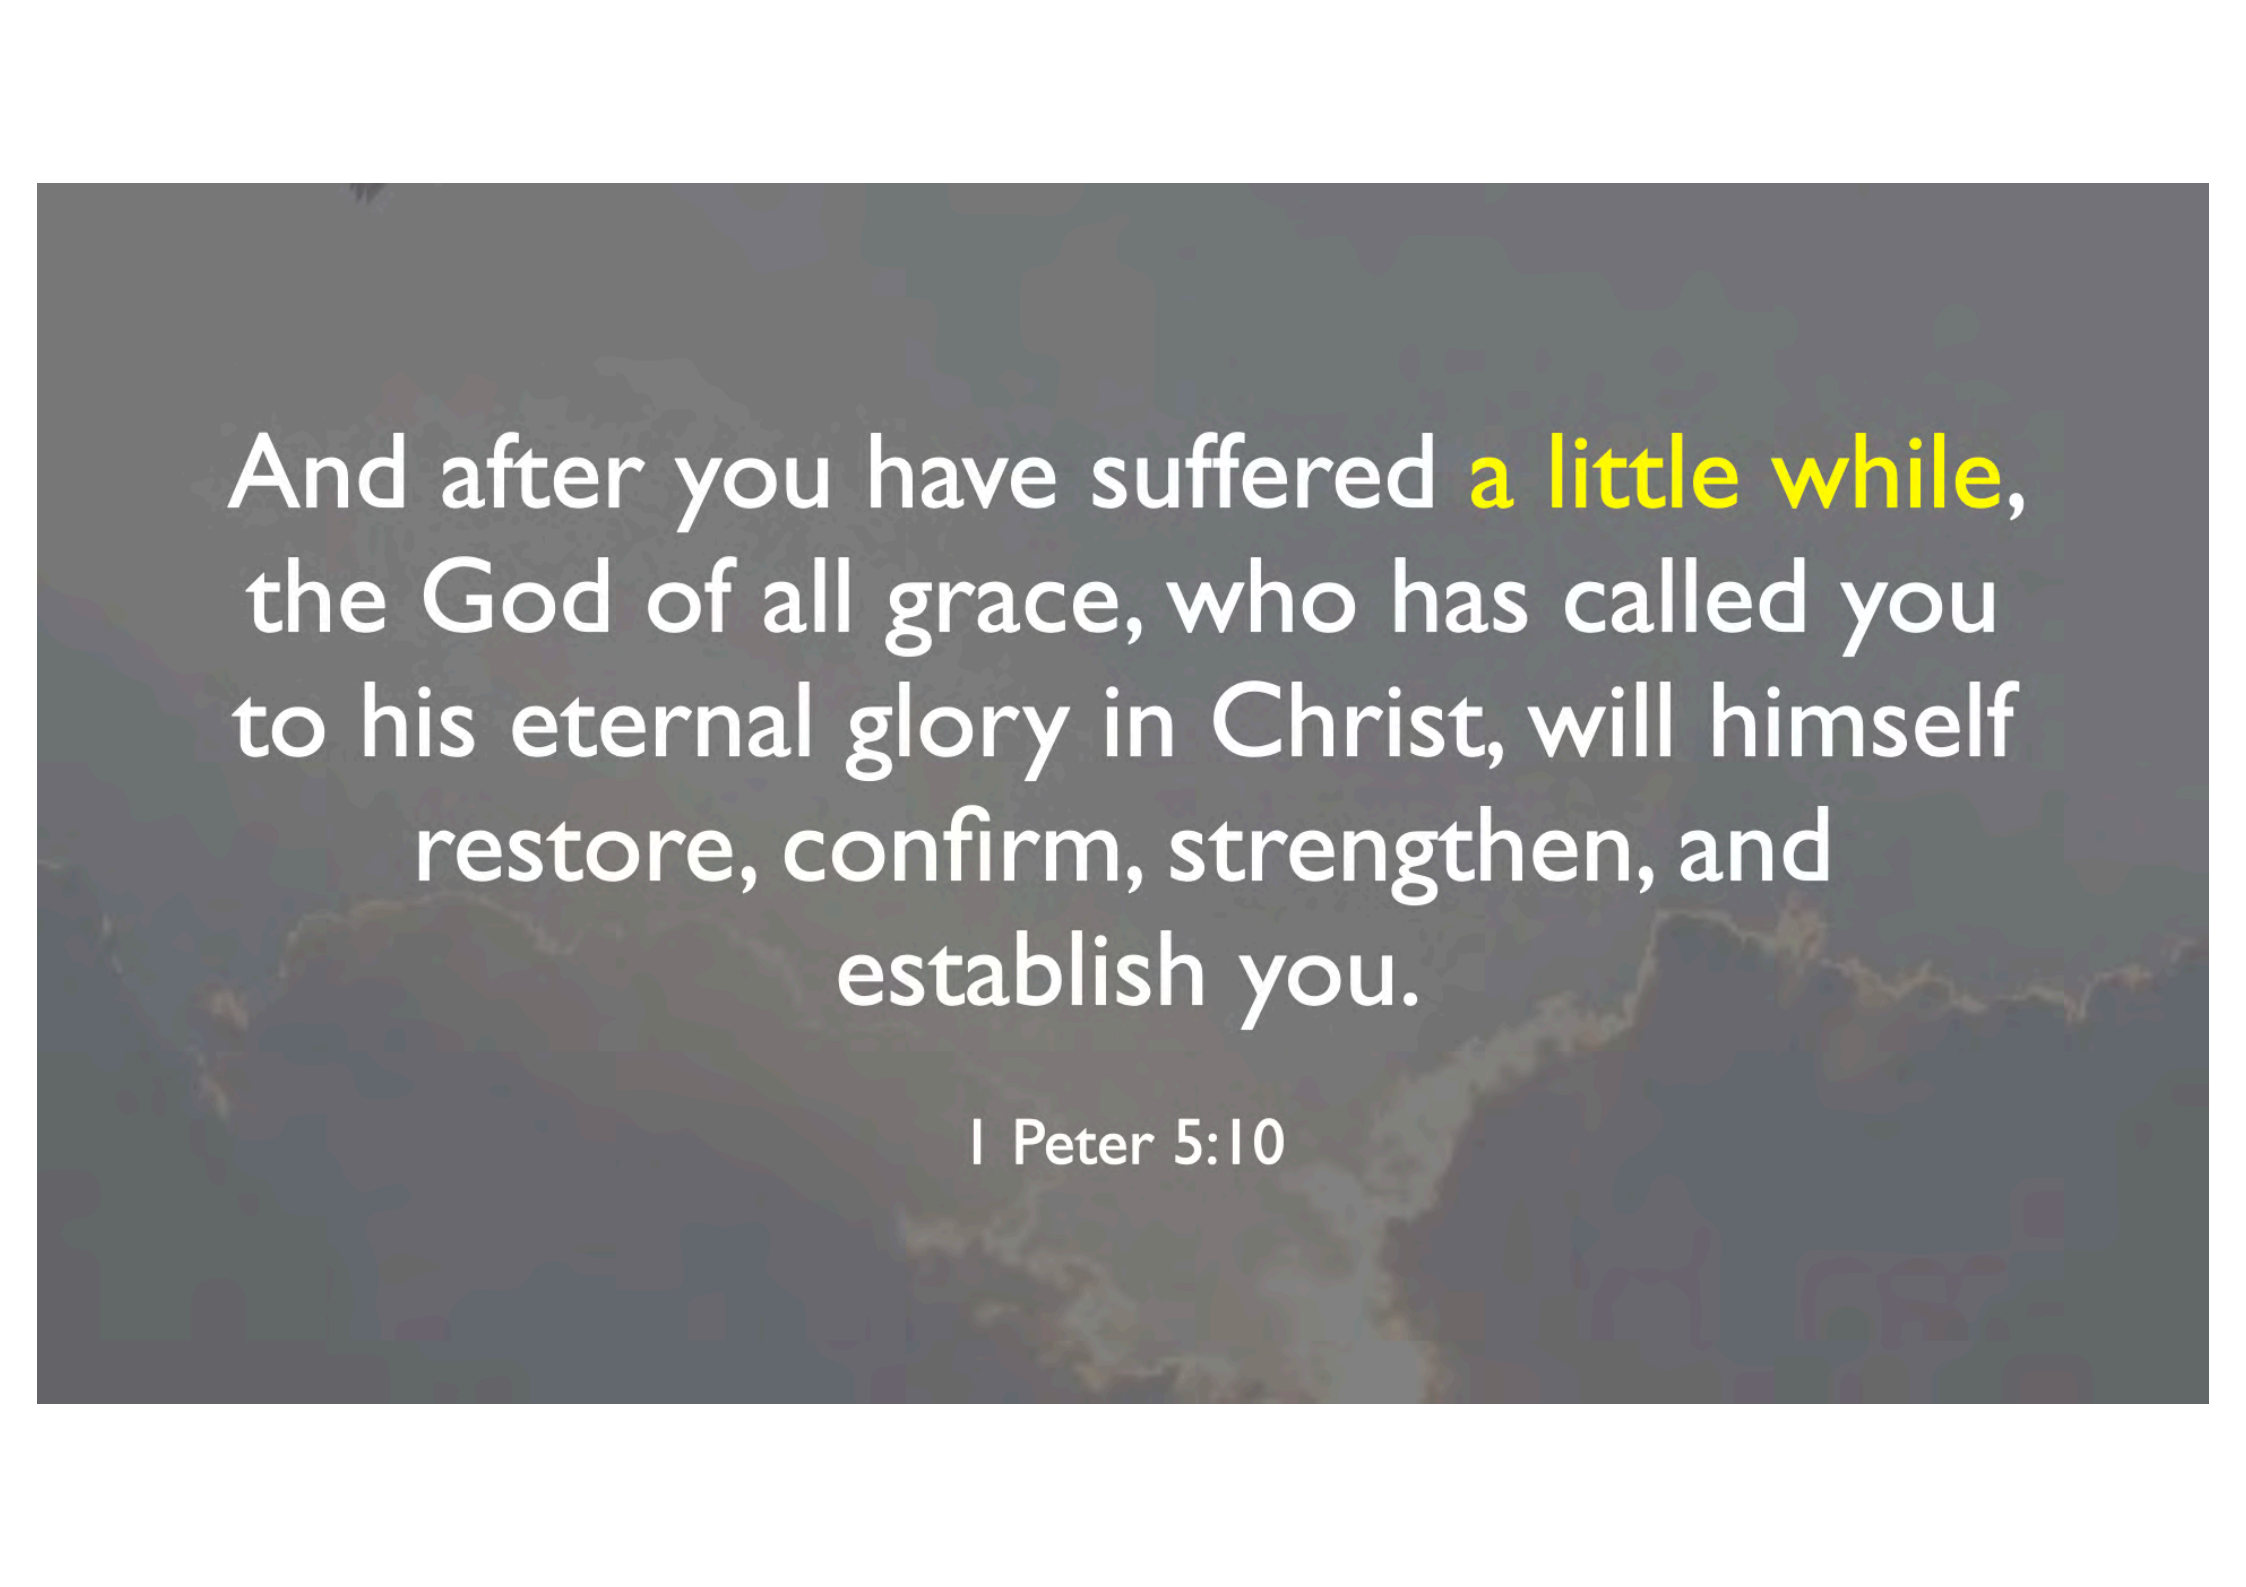

1 Peter 5:10

A photograph of a bird in flight against a blue sky. The bird is positioned in the upper left quadrant. The lower half of the image shows a sunset or sunrise with bright light breaking through dark, silhouetted clouds. A semi-transparent dark rectangle is overlaid in the center, containing white text.

Sufferings that embrace the God of all grace leads to his eternal glory in Christ.

A dramatic sky scene featuring a bird in flight in the upper left, sunbeams (crepuscular rays) breaking through dark, heavy clouds at the bottom, and the text "I. Sufferings" centered in the middle.

I. Sufferings

And after you have suffered a little while,
the God of all grace, who has called you
to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself
restore, confirm, strengthen, and
establish you.

A hawk is shown in flight against a clear blue sky in the upper left quadrant. Below the hawk is a large, dark grey rectangular box containing white text. The background of the entire image is a dramatic sky with dark, heavy clouds at the bottom, through which bright sunlight is breaking, creating a lens flare effect.

Fear God Alone

Not Cancer

And after you have suffered a little while,
the God of all grace, who has called you
to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself
restore, confirm, strengthen, and
establish you.

1 Peter 5:10

A photograph of a bird in flight against a sky with dramatic, sunlit clouds. The bird is in the upper left quadrant, flying towards the right. The sky is a mix of blue and white, with large, dark, billowing clouds at the bottom. The sun is visible through the clouds, creating a bright, glowing effect. The overall mood is one of hope and resilience.

Has your sufferings made you
a better follower of Jesus?
