Abomination of Desolation

Matthew 24:15

So when you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place

Daniel 9:24

Seventy weeks are decreed about your people and your holy city, to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holy place.

Daniel 9:25

Know therefore and understand that from the going out of the word to restore and build Jerusalem to the coming of an anointed one, a prince, there shall be seven weeks. Then for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with squares and moat, but in a troubled time.

Daniel 9:26

And after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off and shall have nothing. And the people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war. Desolations are decreed.

Daniel 9:27

And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week, and for half of the week he shall put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator.

STATE OF ISRAEL IS BORN

The first independent Jewish State in 19 centuries was born in Tel Aviv as the British Mandate over Palestine came to an end at midnight on Friday, and it was immediately subjected to the test of fire. As "Medinat Yisrael" (State of Israel) was proclaimed, the battle for Jerusalem raged, with most of the city falling to the Jews. At the same time, President Truman announced that the United States would accord recognition to the new State. A few hours later, Palestine was terrorized by Moslem bombs from the south, east and north, and Tel Aviv was raided from the air. On Friday the United Nations Special Assembly adjourned after adopting a resolution to appoint a mediator but without taking any action on the Partition Resolution of November 29.

Yesterday the battle for the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road was still under way, and two Arab villages were taken. In the north, Arca town was captured, and the Jewish Army consolidated its positions in Western Galilee.

Most Crossed Hours in Palestine's History

Between Thursday night and this morning, Palestine had through what by all standards must be among the most crossed hours in its history.
For the Jewish population there was the urgent need to flee all the lowland (Gaza) area and women to the Blue Division line of settlements near Be'er Sheva. Their anxiety to avoid a victory was to be tragically frustrated when night fell on the town, with no communication other than the shouting and the firing of rifles. Thursday morning was a time of confusion and for what would be the first time in the State's history would become a time of confusion for the present and possibly a time of regret for the dead. There is no sense in these wartime questions here and here resolved.

On Friday afternoon, from Tel Aviv, news of the expected announcement of the Jewish State and its official naming as "Medinat Yisrael"—State of Israel—came to the people of the State of Israel. The proclamation of the State and its name was a momentous event, one which will be remembered for all time.

In the afternoon, Jerusalem was subjected to a shelling from the north. The shelling was reported to be from the north. The shelling was reported to be from the north.

Some necessary conditions before Jesus returns

1. Israel must be a nation
2. Israel is in control of Jerusalem
3. The Jerusalem Temple is rebuilt

... the New Testament focuses here on the soonness of the return of the Lord Jesus Christ

I want to suggest to you this notion of imminency is preservable if you understand it means something like, "He is coming back soon, and it could be in my lifetime."

For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies.

2 Thessalonians 2:1–3

Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

2 Thessalonians 2:1–3

Let no one deceive you in any way.
