INTRODUCING DEPUTY MISSIONS DIRECTOR: DR. MICHAEL A REDICK

Pastor Mike Redick and his wife Lisa have been serving the Lord in Southeast Asia for over 30 years.

In the last 24 years SMCI has been enabled through its evangelistic campaigns to preach the gospel to some 8.5 million students, seeing thousands saved and multitudes disciplined.

“ The ministry grew quickly and within the next few years SMCI spread throughout the Philippines to over 100 campuses with 135 full-time and part-time workers. ”

Pastor Mike came to Singapore in 1991 to pastor Baptist Fellowship Church. After seven years of fruitful ministry, he left the church feeling called to focus on evangelism. In 1999, Pastor Paul invited him to join GLCC as its Evangelist, and it has been his church home ever since.

Six “Grow Point” churches grew out of SMCI, and are overseen by Pastor Mike. Each GP church is pastored and led by men saved and disciplined through SMCI. About 10 years ago, GLCC funded the building of the SMCI complex and GP church building in Dumaguete, Philippines. Over the last few years, this complex has been monetized by turning it into an event center. Recently a pension house (i.e. “simple hotel”) was built on the property. Through these businesses SMCI and GP churches are now fully self-supported.

In 2000, GLCC invited him to join its campus ministry, ‘Student Movement for Christ International’ (SMCI) in the Philippines for a series of evangelistic meetings on several university campuses. The Lord richly blessed those meetings with many young people getting saved. These converts were disciplined, some became leaders, and others surrendered to full-time service and joined SMCI as full-time staff. The ministry grew quickly and within the next few years SMCI spread throughout the Philippines to over 100 campuses with 135 full-time and part-time workers. It was during this time that Pastor Paul appointed Pastor Mike as President of SMCI.

In 2022, the Board of Asia-Pacific Institute of International Studies (APIIS) appointed Pastor Mike as its Vice-President. Through this ministry, he helps Pastor Paul to teach/mentor about 1000 Pastors/Leaders from 29 countries every week.

Recently, the Board of Elders appointed Pastor Mike as Deputy Missions Director of GLCC. He helps Pastor Paul to oversee our growing missions ministries throughout Asia, from China to the Middle East.

Presently Pastor Mike and Lisa are based in the U.S., caring for Lisa’s aged mother. They look forward to being back in Asia as soon as the Lord gives liberty.
