FOUR THINGS YOU NEED TO HEAR ABOUT YOUTH MINISTRY

1. We Are Thankful

As I reflect on what God has been doing among the youth, my heart overflows with praise and gratitude to Him. It fills me with joy to witness some of our second generation youth coming to faith, the growth and devotion of our young new believers, and seeing newcomers join our weekly youth services. I thank God for the dedicated core leadership team and youth Care Group (CG) leaders who tirelessly serve and sacrifice, for without their servant-heartedness, our Youth Ministry would not be where it is today.

2. We've Gone Through a Season of Challenges

As we journey through some recent challenges and changes to plans, we have learned to resubmit our carefully laid out plans to God and recommit our trust in His sovereignty. As we rely on God and seek His wisdom for our plans, we are reminded that it is God who leads and guides us in His way, and perhaps our plans may not always look the way we thought it would. We also learn to rest, assured that God will provide for our needs to send forth more labourers, in His perfect time.

3. We Are Messy But Loved by the Father

Many a time, the youth feel they have been overlooked, misunderstood, and labelled as difficult or defiant when they think or do things in a different way. But I hope we can all remember that they are precious lost sheep whom God would like us to shepherd and lead to Him. We covet your prayers for the youth, our leaders, and especially their parents who serve as the youths' primary disciple-makers.

Please pray with us for an unwavering commitment to God's Word and the Gospel. Pray for wisdom and discernment as we journey with the youth – guiding, modelling and discipling them through challenges around competing worldviews, mental health, relationships, school and family issues, doubts, and questions about the faith. Pray that God may continue to raise up Godly leaders to invest in this next generation!

4. We Need a Few Good Men and Women to Serve

Youth Ministry is an exciting place, as we get to come alongside and journey with the youths, while they seek God and grow in faith. We do this by sharing our lives with them, engaging in discussions in the Word, and most of all, loving them with the love of Christ. I believe God has extended His call to many to serve with us and invest in the lives of the youths. If you are interested in serving, don't hesitate to reach out to me or the Youth Ministry team!
