A PRAYER AS SINGAPORE TURNS 58 YEARS YOUNG

We confess that many of the temporal national blessings we enjoy have made us lose sight of the eternal. Help us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author, perfecter, and finisher of our faith.

Lord, as we approach our National Day, we remember the many blessings you've given to Singapore these 58 years. You've given us a peaceful and prosperous nation. A nation with many freedoms that we so often take for granted.

We pray for our government. We are reminded of Your Word in 1 Timothy 2:1-2, which instructs us to pray for those in authority:

"I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way."

Grant our leaders wisdom, integrity, compassion and humility to govern justly and righteously. May they seek Your guidance and honor Your Word in their decisions and policies.

As we celebrate our earthly citizenship, we are reminded of our calling as citizens of a heavenly kingdom. We confess that many of the temporal national blessings we enjoy have made us lose sight of the eternal. Help us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author, perfecter, and finisher of our faith. Lord, then help us to live as citizens of heaven while being responsible and engaged citizens of Singapore. May Your Kingdom values shape our decisions and actions in all aspects of life.

Lord, we pray for Your church in Singapore. Grant her the grace to proclaim a true, unadulterated gospel to the nation. Protect your followers from the allure of false gospels that dilute the message of repentance, and salvation in Christ alone. Empower your people with wisdom to discern, and steadfastness to remain true to your Word.

We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, who reigns supreme over all nations. May Your kingdom come, Your will be done.

Amen.
