OF ALL

a Series in Colossians

[1] Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

[2] To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

[3] We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you,

[4] since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints,

[5] because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel,

[6] which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth,

[7] just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf

[8] and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

1. Manifestation

The background of the slide features a dark, almost black, textured surface. Overlaid on this are two hands, one on the left and one on the right, rendered in a light, ethereal, wireframe or mesh-like style. The hands are positioned as if they are reaching towards each other, with fingers slightly curled, creating a sense of tension and connection. The overall aesthetic is modern and somewhat abstract.

A dark, atmospheric image showing two hands reaching towards each other in a dark space. The hands are rendered in a semi-transparent, wireframe-like style, with the fingers slightly curled as if grasping or supporting each other. The background is a deep, dark blue or black, with some faint, glowing lines and textures that suggest a complex, perhaps digital or biological, structure. The overall mood is one of connection, support, and hope.
