MINISTRY VOICES

Every Sunday, hundreds of our volunteers serve faithfully, in order to ensure the smooth running of our Sunday worship experience. As believers, our call is to serve one another imitating the servanthood of our Master, Jesus Christ. We asked some of our volunteers to encourage us with their experiences serving.

Greeting and Growing Through Ushering:

"As ushers, we welcome everyone to our Father's house and help them feel comfortable and ready to receive God's word. More importantly, we are one of the first people that newcomers meet. Through simple acts like greeting them, finding suitable seats and lending a helping hand, I hope they can feel God's love and the warmth of His people.

Ushering is a great way to get to know people in GLCC. After some time, strangers become familiar faces. The team also has lots of kind people, who readily introduce me to their friends and family. As a team, we're a cooperative bunch and help each other out. Often, even those not on duty will pitch in if they see a need.

Along the way, I got to meet two friends whom I had lost touch with for more than 20 years. I might not have seen them if I wasn't an usher. It was a joy to see them worshipping with their spouses!

If you want to serve but are stretched for time, ushering is a great start – especially if you attend church service anyway. All you need is a friendly smile and a willingness to help!"

From Introvert to Befriender

"Serving in a ministry allows me to utilize God's spiritual gift to serve others. It also surrounds me with like-minded Christians within the ministry who give their all to serve others and spread the gospel. Even though I am an introvert, I believe that God has placed me within the Befrienders ministry to train and toughen me in order to speak and befriend strangers as a first step to sharing the gospel.

Many years ago, I was also one such newcomer. I was shown the great welcoming spirit and hospitality by the befrienders. This was deeply ingrained within me and made me felt welcomed and made me stay and serve.

Having spoken to many newcomers for the past two years since COVID ended, the greatest highlights was seeing the people we talk to come back as regular Gospeliters. My wife and I recognize some of the newcomers coming back to GL regularly, made friends, connected with a CG and even started serving!

I would encourage fellow Gospeliters to serve by reminding them that Jesus came to walk among us to serve and not to be served (Mark 10:45). We should therefore welcome any newcomers with warm hospitality and serve the needs of others before ourselves."

CHURCH HAPPENINGS

•PRIVATE FUNDINGS

As a church, we support the community around us through several outreach ministries. Some of you do this via tuition, home cleaning and delivering food personally. From time to time, Gospeliters may come to know about financial needs within the church body and feel led to support these needs on a private group basis. If and when the group has determined that there is legitimacy to support these needs, the Church Committee would advise the group to practice prudence and care in such support, in your private capacity. If you plan to do so, here's some advice for church members:

- Set up fund objectives clearly (define and communicate with group the aim of the support)
- Communicate with prior notice and consulting with members when funding objectives have differed from main objectives
- Seek agreement with members about expectations on how you share information on expenses and flow of funds (eg. should everyone agree on how the funds are used or certain members of group can make decisions on behalf of the group)
- Ensure there are proper documentation of expenses incurred by receiving parties (Consider communicating to receivers of the fund that the group requires receipts of expenses incurred)
- Employees of Gospel Light must not be involved in leading any private fund raising even if this person might be supporting the cause in a church member's capacity.

If you are participating in any private fund raising effort, please ensure that you are comfortable with arrangements set up by the initiator of such effort before providing the necessary fund. The church does not have oversight over private fund raising. As such, the church is not in a position to resolve any issues or disputes arising from the use of such funds.

Please note that the church has a Mercy Fund scheme which has provided support to members of GLCC through the years and this is managed by the Deacons of the church.

Our overall mission is to bring the Gospel to the community around us and let's continue to put the Gospel mission at the front of all our work in the community.

If you are unclear or uncomfortable with any fund-raising request that comes to your attention, please speak to your CG leaders, Deacons or Elders of the church.
