“Be careful how you live. You may be the only Bible some person ever reads.”

WILLIAM J. TOMS

Colossians 4:5-6

Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time.

Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.

A dark, textured background featuring two hands, one on the left and one on the right, reaching towards each other. The hands are rendered in a dark, almost black, wireframe or mesh-like style, giving them a translucent, ethereal appearance. The fingers are slightly curled, and the palms are facing each other, creating a sense of tension and anticipation. The overall mood is mysterious and spiritual.

Why do you stand on tip-toe?

Why do you stand on tip-toe?
I am ever running.

And why you have a pair of wings on your feet?

And why you have a pair of wings on your feet?
I fly away swiftly with the wind.

And why does your hair hang over your face?

And why does your hair hang over your face?
For him to seize me by the forelock when I come.

And why is the back of your head bald?

And why is the back of your head bald?
That when I'm gone, none can lay hold of me.
