Bearing One Another's Burden

Galatians 6:2-5

All New! All-Out Adventure!

THE LONE RANGER

uncovers
a city of gold
and plunges
into
his newest,
most exciting
adventure!

A man wearing a traditional straw hat and a dark, long-sleeved robe stands on a wooden structure, looking out over a misty, mountainous landscape. The scene is atmospheric, with a bird flying in the distance. The title text is overlaid on the image.

“Bearing one
another’s burden
requires us to weed
out pride in our
heart to walk in the Spirit together.”

Bearing One Another's Burden

I. Significance

Bear one another's burdens,
and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Bear one another's burdens,
and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Bear one another's burdens,
and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Bearing One Another's Burden

1. Significance
2. Stumbling-block

For if anyone thinks he is
something,
when he is nothing,
he deceives himself.

Galatians 6:3

For if anyone thinks he is
something,
when he is nothing,
he deceives himself.

Galatians 6:3

“The spiritual person will help the erring brother or sister by pointing only to Christ where there is healing. The proud person will not help, because attention will be drawn to himself where there is no healing at all.”

John Piper

For if anyone thinks he is
something,
when he is nothing,
he deceives himself.

Galatians 6:3

Bearing One Another's Burden

1. Significance
2. Stumbling-block
3. Self-examination

But let each one test his own
work,
and then his reason to boast
will be in himself alone
and not in his neighbor.

Galatians 6:4

But let each one test his own
work,
and then his reason to boast
will be in himself alone
and not in his neighbor.

Galatians 6:4

But let each one test his own
work,
and then his reason to boast
will be in himself alone
and not in his neighbor.

Galatians 6:4

“Tis inexpressible, and almost inconceivable, how strong a self-righteous, self-exalting disposition is naturally in man; and what he will not do and suffer, to feed and gratify it.”

Jonathan Edwards

For each will have to bear his own
load.

Galatians) 6:5

For each will have to bear his own
load.

Galatians) 6:5

Self-examination Questions

1. Am I walking in the Spirit?
2. Is there any work of the flesh in my life?
3. Am I bearing the fruit of the Spirit?
4. What am I doing to bear another's burden?
5. Do I feed on thinking of myself as somebody?
