

CHURCH CAMP 2024

This June, 501 Gospelers gathered in Melaka for a 4D3N camp from 12-15 June 2024. We had 109 Gospelers attending camp for the very first time. Highlights from the camp were undoubtedly the soaking in of God's Word through the messages and workshops conducted but also the sweet fellowship amongst God's people during small group discussion and over meals. May the sharing from our campers encourage many more Gospelers to sign up for next year's church camp in Kuala Lumpur from 10-14 June 2025!

All preachers have a common theme in pointing us to the attributes of God. Their personal experiences they have gone through resonate well with me as I journeyed through struggles. Messages have served me well in encouraging me that though we face difficulties in various seasons of our lives, we need not fear, because our God is in control and through His grace and mercy we can overcome them.

- Brother Leslie

We should have more Workshops! It helps us to understand Scripture by genre (ie poetry in this year's camp) and thus read the Word in context. It is a hermeneutics class par excellence!

- Brother Jawn

Apprehensive about this (discussion groups) at first but wow, this format works very well. Being with people I don't know until this camp, allows me to practise sharing and discussing with strangers. I even managed to say a prayer for the group before a discussion when the facilitator asked if anyone would like to do it. This is something I did not have confidence in. And it came out better than I expected. Thank God!

Many thanks to Pastor Paul for arranging for the church missionaries to share their experiences and prayer requests. Many attendees were clearly touched by what was shared. It gave us a glimpse into the realities of persecution, struggle, and the strength required to stand firm as Christians outside of our bubble in Singapore. Thank you, Pastor Paul, and all the missionaries, for the incredible work you have done, for your strength in the face of adversity, and for your faithful walk. Your quiet yet steadfast efforts are truly encouraging.

Thank you very much!!! A special special shoutout to the children's ministry! Thank you so much for taking care of the kids while we listened to the preaching of God's word! My children really enjoyed the preschool and primary school service.

- Min Sen and Huiying

Our group of young families were incredibly blessed to join the entire congregation in worshipping God together this church camp! For once, we were not surrounded by four walls (i.e. segregated in the cry room or the attic), but by voices praising God and the physical presence. It was wonderful to witness this for myself and a reminder that this is a picture of the Church. In spite of the perceived "noise" of us coming from different backgrounds, baggage and personalities.

So - thank you all for embracing and being inclusive of our community of little people and our quite literal "noise"!

- Brother Alden
