A SERIES IN GALATIANS

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a night sky. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, with some lighter patches where light might be breaking through. In the lower-left foreground, there is a small, dark building or structure with several small, warm lights glowing from its windows, providing a point of contrast against the dark landscape.

"we know that a person is not justified
by works of the law
but through faith in Jesus Christ"

(Galatians 2:16)

A right standing before God is not achieved by works of the law,
but received by faith in Jesus Christ.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a dark, stormy night sky. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, with some lighter patches where light is breaking through. In the foreground, a small, dark building with several glowing windows is situated on a hill. The overall mood is dramatic and mysterious.

Galatians 3:1-5

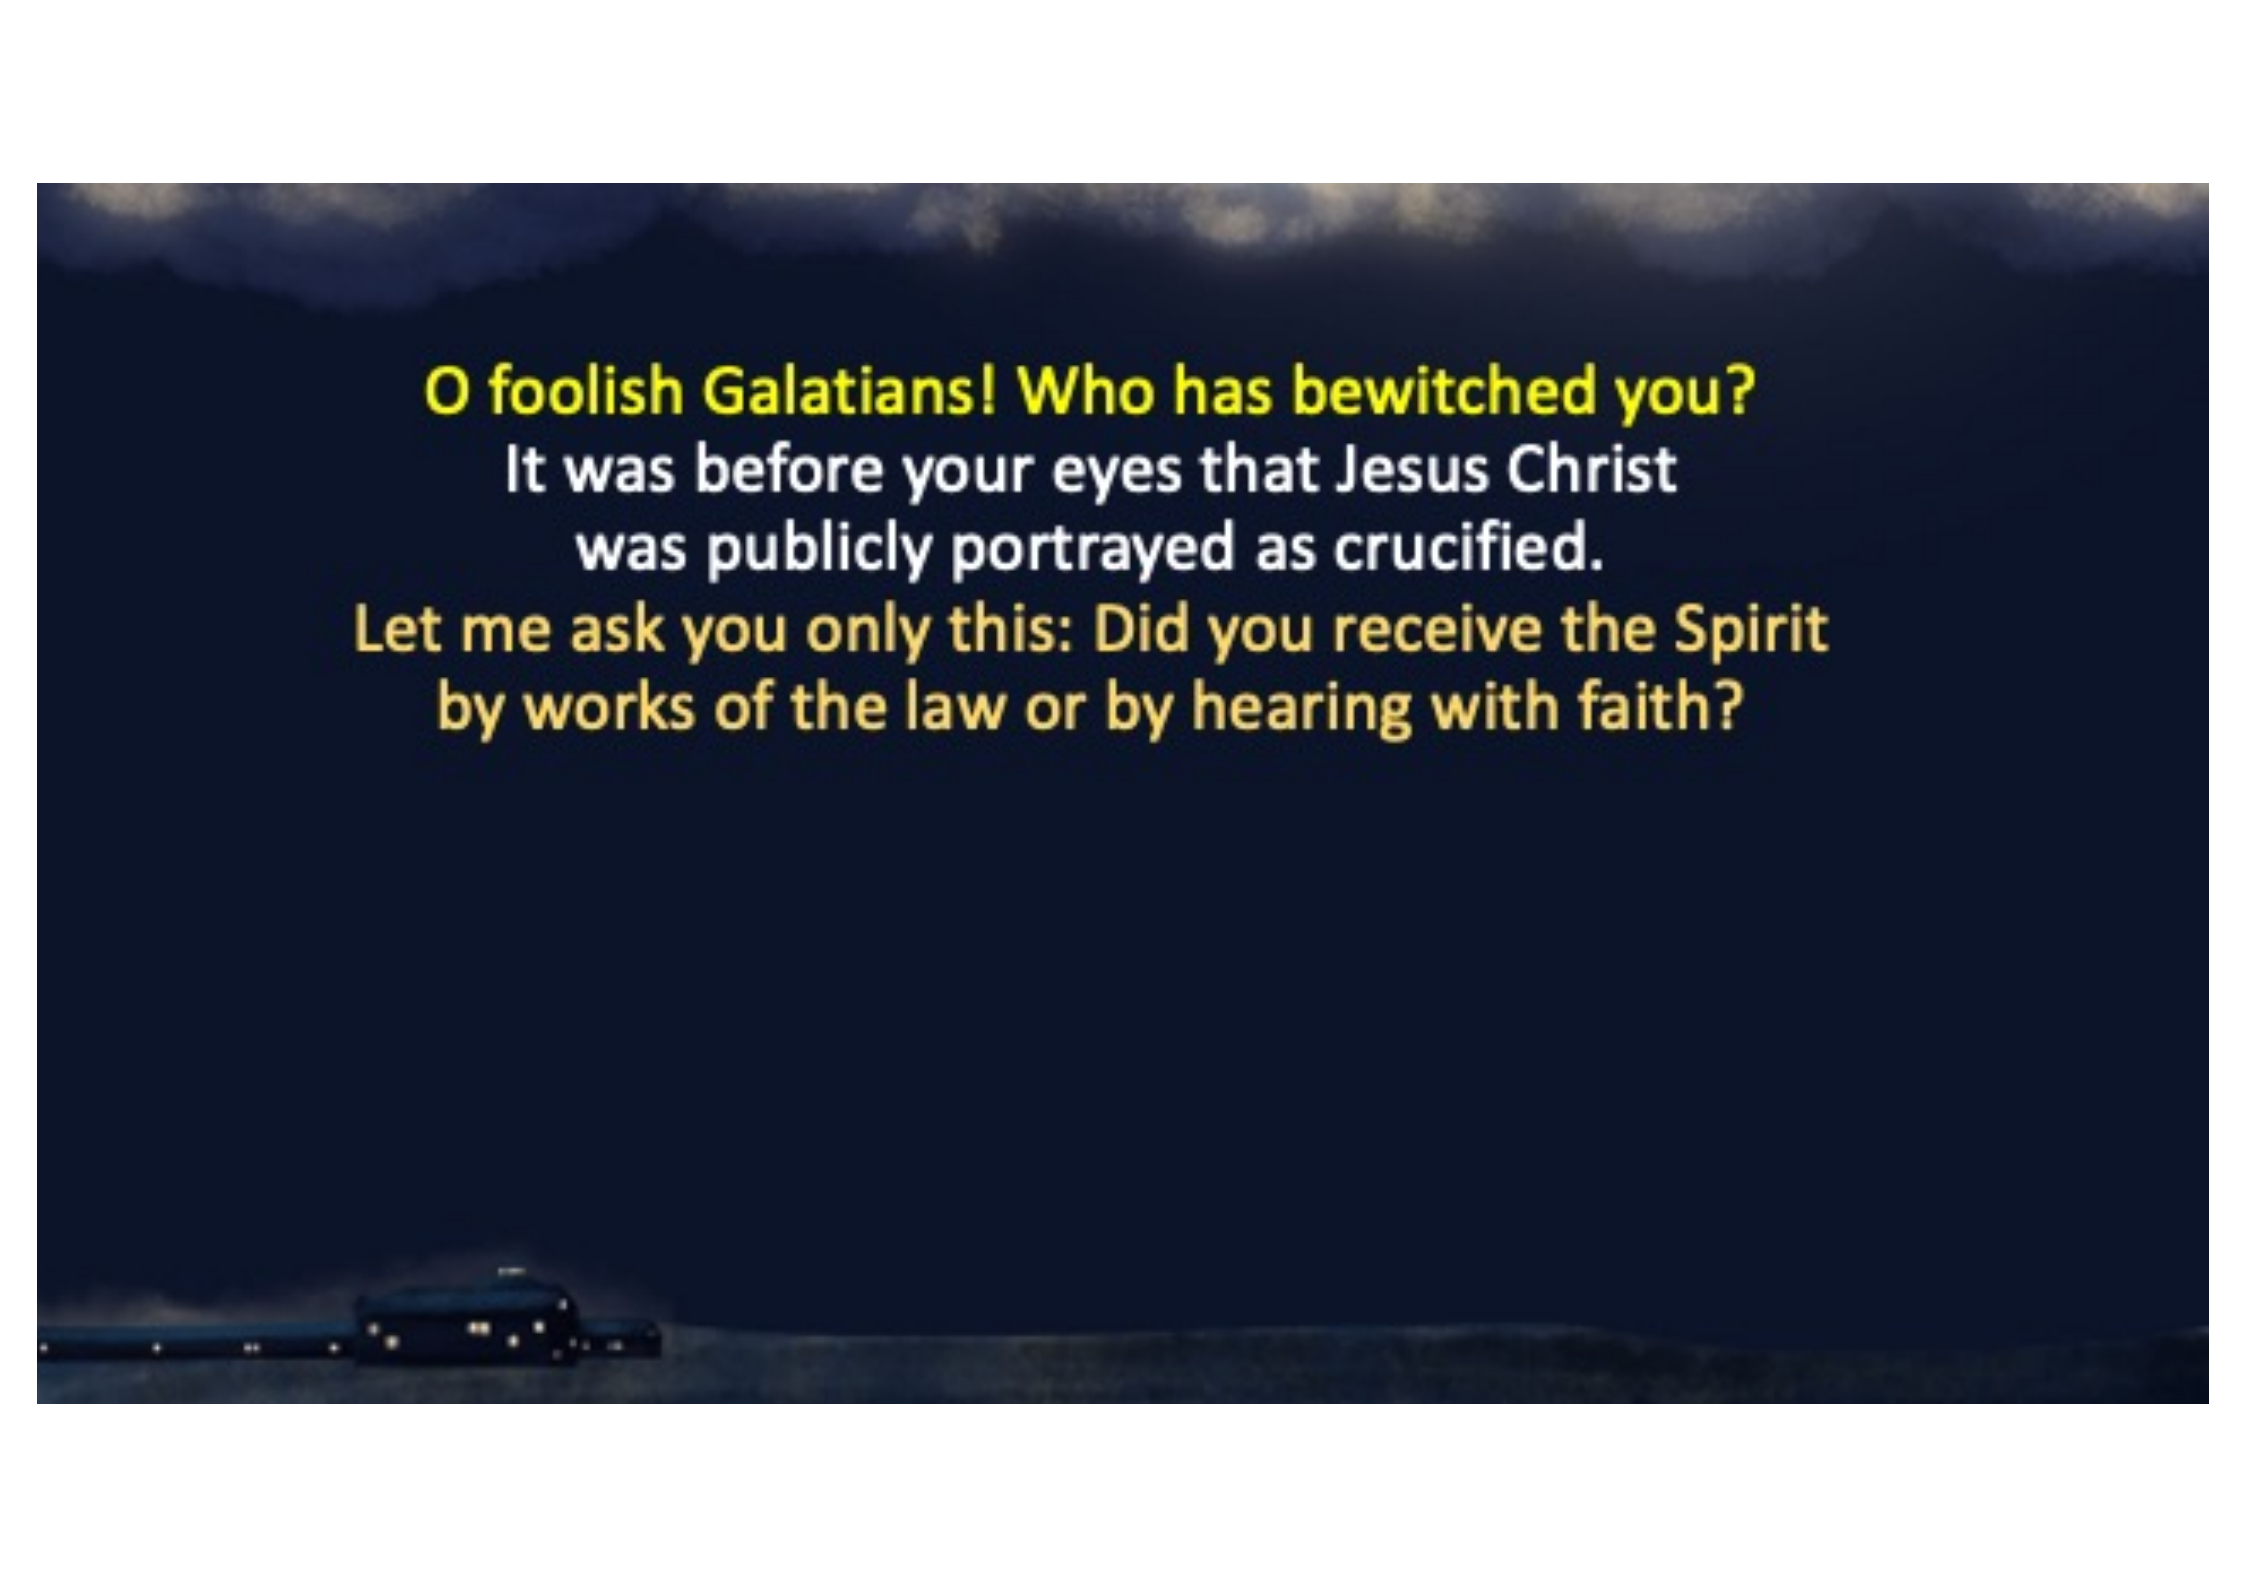

O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you?

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a night sky. Heavy, dark clouds are visible at the top, with some lighter patches where light might be breaking through. The sky transitions into a deep, dark blue. In the lower-left foreground, there is a small, dark building or structure with several small, warm-toned lights glowing from its windows or doors. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you?

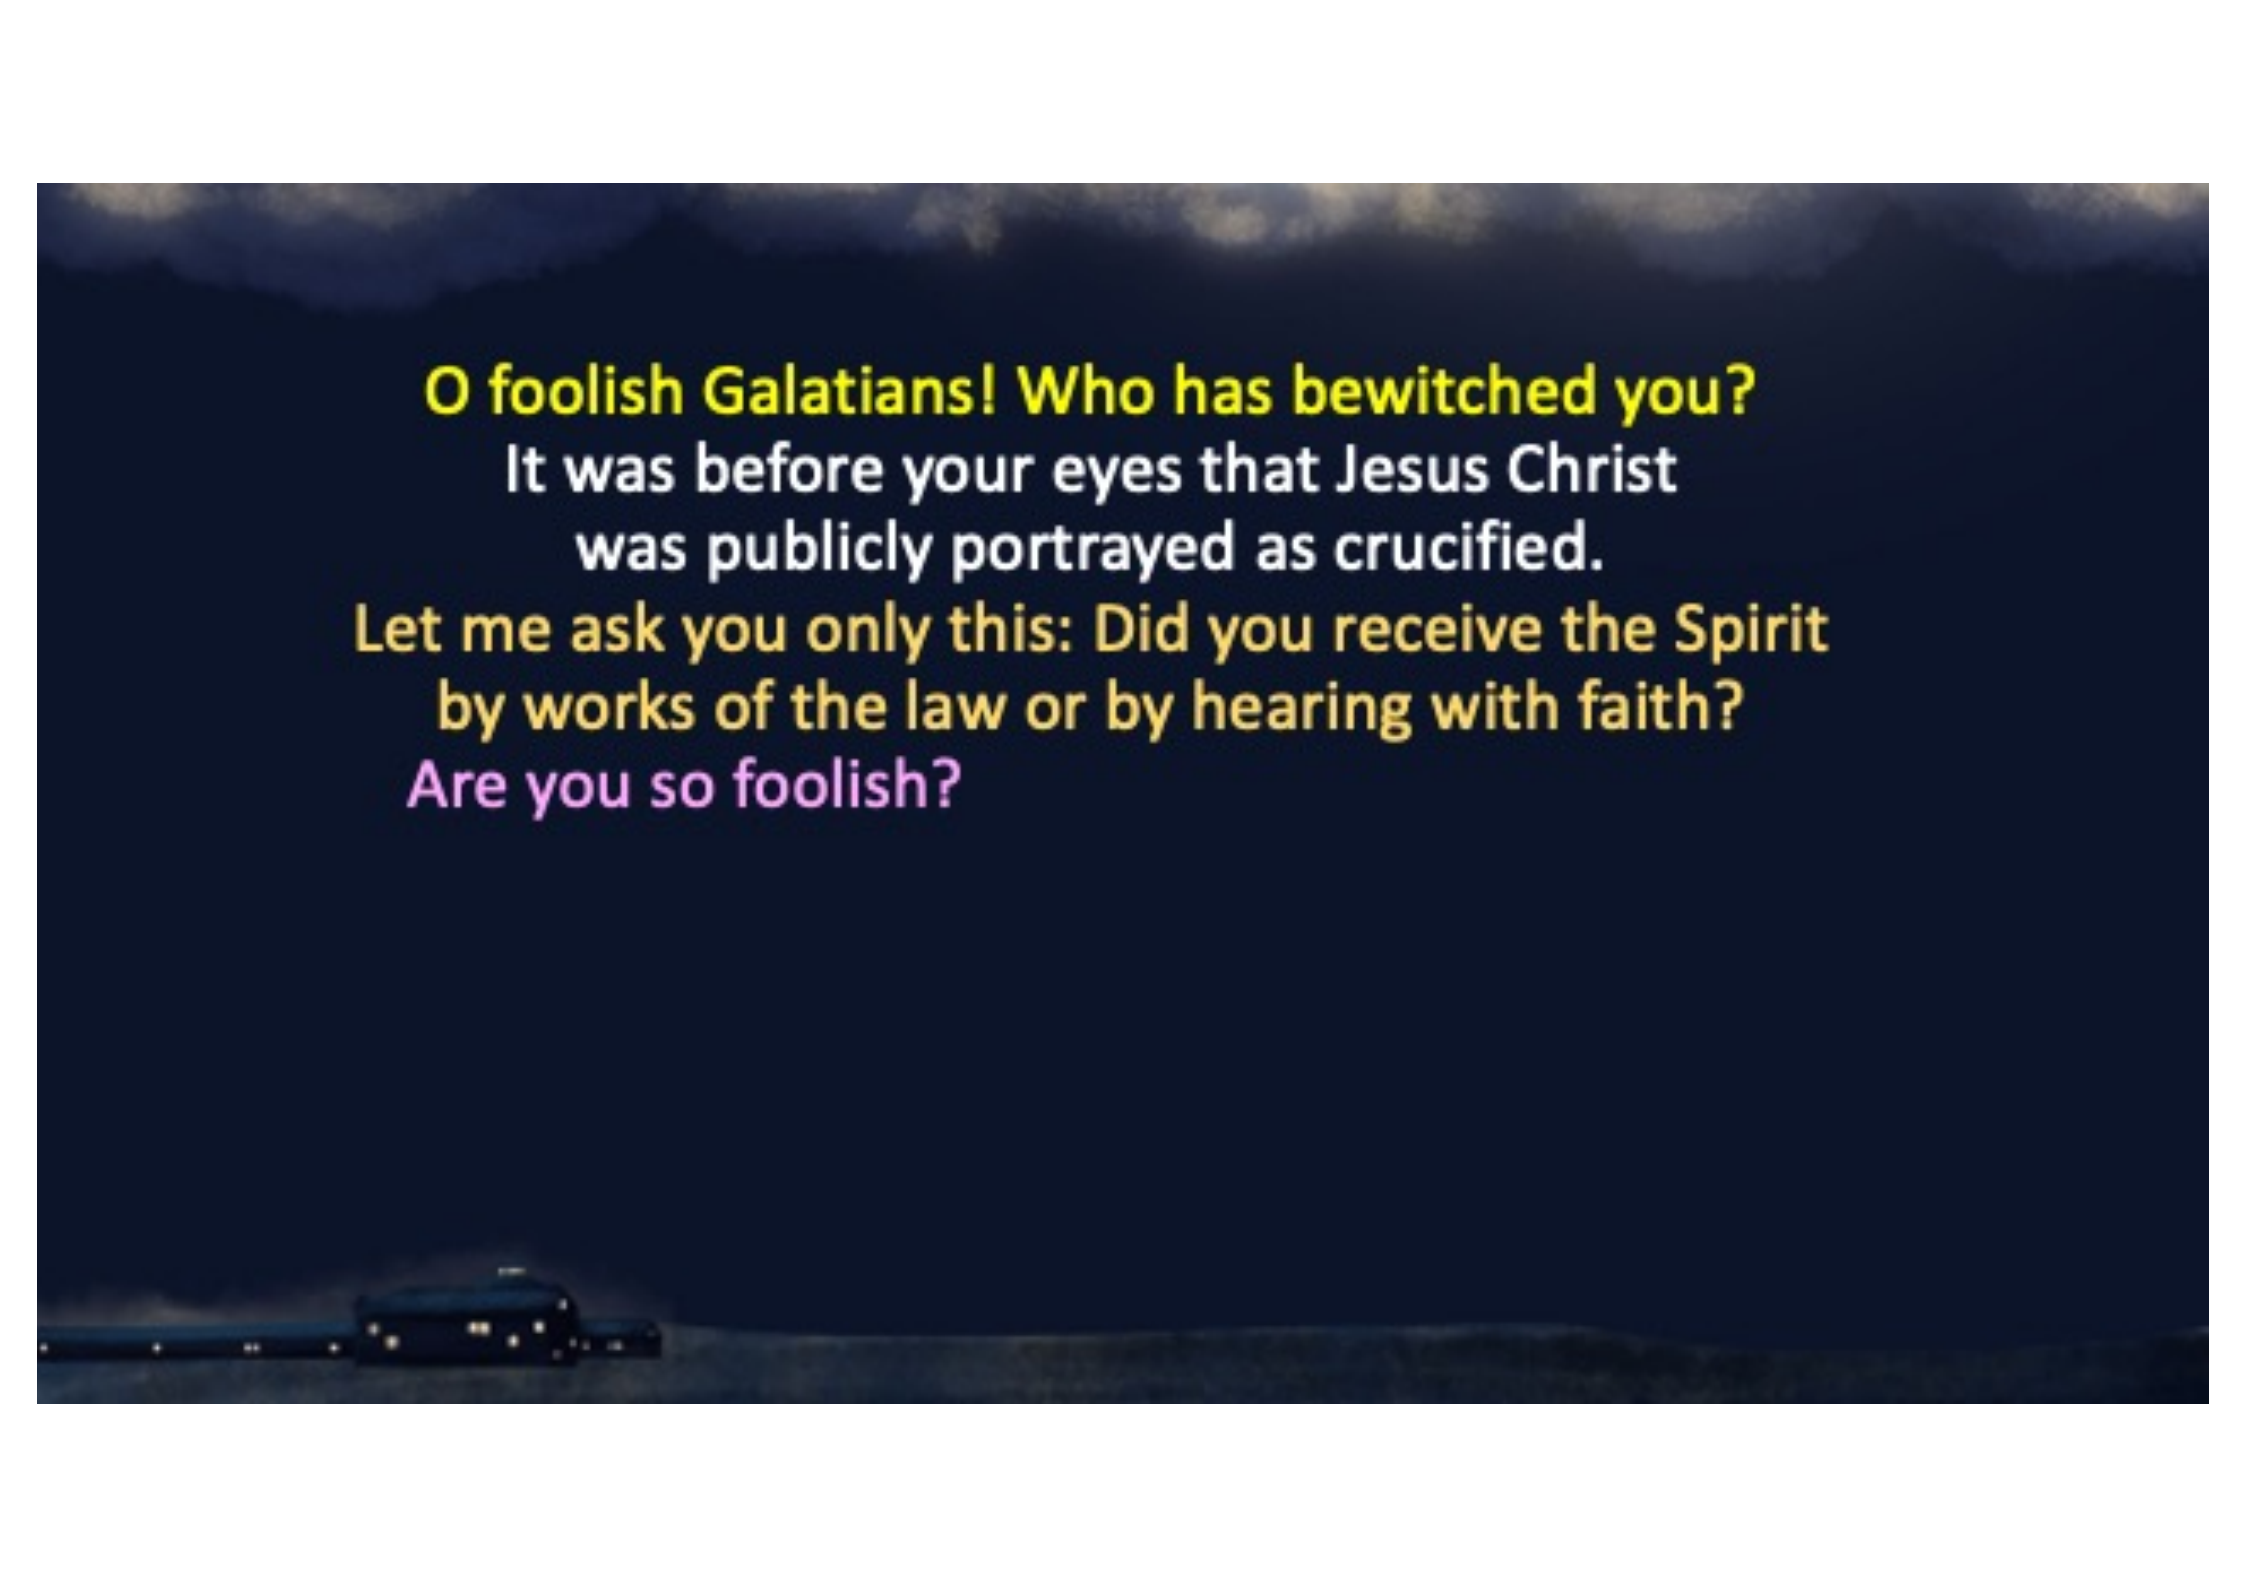

It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified.

O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you?
