SERVING: AN ACT OF WORSHIP

God has saved us so we can become servants and offer our lives as living sacrifices. We asked our ministry workers to share their heartbeat and motivations for service. Find out more in this article.

Serving in ministry is important. As followers of Christ, we have been called to serve! If I am to be an imitator of God, then I ought to heed this call to serve and not just be served. This desire to serve in ministry is also a natural outflow of our relationship with God, in whom we find our ultimate joy and satisfaction.

Serving behind the scenes in audio ministry allows me to have a special seat to witness different members of the body of Christ working in unison for the sake of the gospel. Seeing differently gifted brothers and sisters at work has always been a blessing. It is a constant reminder of how we are all serving the same God. God truly uses us, imperfect people, to ultimately bring glory to His name.

As much as it is a sacrifice to serve, it is also a huge blessing and privilege to do so. I would strongly encourage others to utilise the spiritual gifts that God has blessed them with. In doing so, they would be able to put into practice Jesus' commandment to love one another just as He first loved us. In whatsoever that we do, may it be from Him, through Him and to Him, all for the glory of God.

Joel Chong
Audio Ministry Lead

Serving in ministry is an act of worship to God and a way of saying thank you and giving back to Him, for He has first loved us and given us His Son

I feel a sense of joy and satisfaction in being able to serve effectively as the camera operator in the video ministry, and I hope others have also been blessed in being able to catch the service livestreams and revisit past sermon recordings online.

I would encourage others to serve by exploring certain ministries you are interested in and see if that's where the Lord has called you to serve. Also if more people are serving, then we spread the work out among each other.

Ying Jie
Video Ministry Volunteer

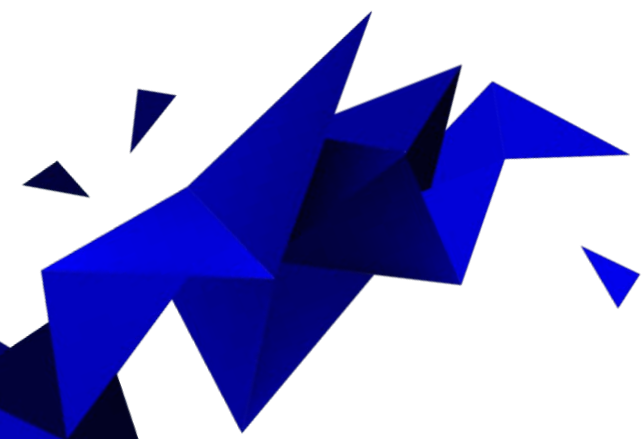

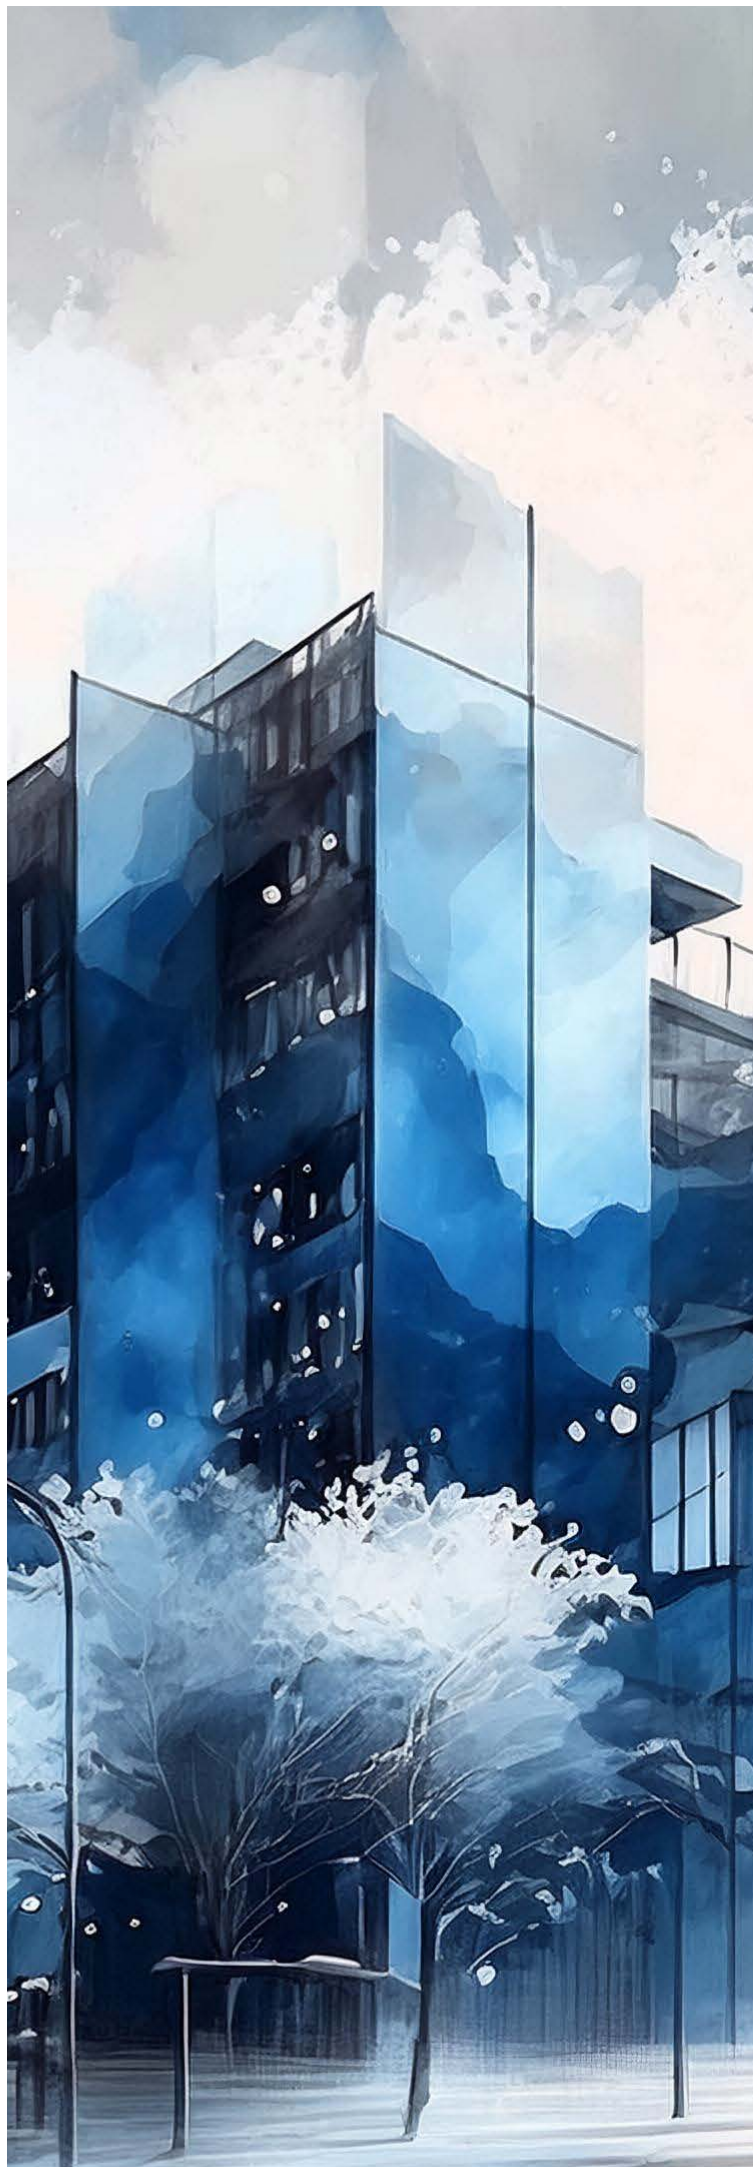

I have always seen ministry as a conduit to convey my love for Christ and His people. Having served and led in the Visual ministry for over a decade now, I still find joy knowing that what we do is a supporting force in helping people to worship in the most conducive environment possible.

Although much of what we do in the Visual ministry is behind the scenes and often goes unnoticed, I have always believed that even the little things - like ensuring that the lyrics are correct, can be seen by everyone in the hall, and even advancing to the next slide in time - matter in service to God.

I'm thankful for how God has provided wonderful brothers and sisters in Christ who have served alongside me for so many years, and I'm looking forward to the day when we can worship God without needing to refer to lyrics on a screen!

Visual Ministry Lead
