INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

The Cup We Could Not Drink

Article by Luzerne Cheng
Varsity Shepherd

A Question of Greatness

“Are you (both) able to drink the cup that I am to drink?” (Matthew 20:22) This was Jesus’ response to the mother who wanted her sons to be great in His kingdom. Jesus then explained what true greatness looks like —not striving for power but stooping down to serve. Greatness in His kingdom is not about commanding many but about being a servant, which Jesus Himself modeled.

As His crucifixion loomed, Jesus prayed: “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.” (Matthew 26:39) Here, we get a clearer picture of the cup Jesus had previously spoken of. This cup is directly tied closely to the cross.

The Cup of Wrath

John gives us a clearer picture in Revelation 14:9-10: “If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, he also will drink the wine of God’s wrath, poured full strength into the cup of his anger.” This passage helps us understand that the cup Jesus drank was the full wrath of God—the punishment for the sins of the world, poured out on Him at the cross.

The cup of God’s wrath, meant for us, was taken by Jesus so that we could receive:

- Favor instead of wrath
- Adoption instead of rejection
- Life instead of death

The Cup of Blessing

Paul too writes of a cup in 1 Corinthians

10:16: “The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?” With this cup we are invited to have participation or fellowship with Christ. A reminder of the new relationship that we have with God – fellowship, not wrath. It is also a reminder of Jesus’ example of servanthood.

What Does This Mean for Us?

#1 Reflect on the Meanings of the Cups

As Good Friday approaches, let us take time to:

- Consider Jesus’ sacrifice
- Reflect on its significance for us
- Meditate on our new standing before God

Don’t let this season pass without letting your mind consider it. Don’t let this season pass without letting your hearts be moved by it. Grab your friends, grab your wife, grab your kids and exhort one another with this truth! (Hebrews 3:13)

#2 Follow Jesus' Example of Servanthood

Jesus calls us to live as He lived. In your daily life, ask yourself:

- How has Jesus' servanthood shaped my relationships at school, work, or home?
- Does my life reflect the servant-heartedness of Christ?

If we have been impacted by Jesus' sacrifice, it will flow from our minds, to our hearts, and into our actions.
