INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

Serving Our Husbands through Prayer

Article by Pamela Teh
Biblical Counsellor

Prayer is one of the most powerful ways a wife can serve her husband.

I have prayed countless times for my husband — sometimes more selflessly, sometimes less. Over the years, my prayers have fluctuated between occasional praying, praying with doubt, praying with selfish intent, praying out of duty, and even praying for God's best while secretly desiring what I thought was best.

Like many, I have prayed for:

- His immediate needs
- His wants
- His protection
- His spiritual growth
- His relationships

The nature of my prayers has changed with the passing seasons, our growing maturity in Christ, and my husband's evolving needs.

Yet through all these stages, prayer has remained a constant and vital expression of love and service in our marriage.

About three weeks ago, I candidly asked my husband how I could pray for him more meaningfully as his wife. Instead of replying directly, he simply thanked me for the years I had prayed for him, our children, and our family. Later, he sent me this text:

"Often when you asked for my prayer requests, I would respond briefly. Yet you always intuitively filled in the blanks, turning my few words into a full page of prayers I truly needed. I'm amazed at how you could discern my unspoken needs, even when I was unresponsive in my more melancholic moments. Thank you for consistently praying for me, anticipating the hidden struggles in my life, and assuring me of your love as we walk through life together."

After reading this, I was deeply moved — overwhelmed by both the fear and love of God. I realized afresh that praying for my husband is not merely a duty, but a gift of faithful companionship — a ministry of love that God calls me to steward well.

Thus, with greater intentionality, I now desire to joyfully serve him in prayer, seeking his spiritual flourishing and our shared walk with God.

How We Can Pray for Our Husbands:

1. His Spiritual Growth

- Praying for sanctification and joyful obedience to God's Word.
- Example: Praying Scripture over him (e.g., 1 Chronicles 4:10, the Prayer of Jabez).

2. His Work and Ministry

- Asking God to bless his efforts and enlarge the territory of his heart for service and love.

3. His Strength Against Temptation

- Seeking God's protection over his heart and mind (Ephesians 6:10–18).

4. His Pursuit of God

- Praying for vigilance, wisdom, and steadfastness in every season (1 Peter 5:8; Colossians 1:9–12).

5. His Compassion for Others

- Praying that his love would abound in discernment and be filled with the fruits of righteousness (Philippians 1:9–11).

A Wife's Prayer:

O holy and merciful Father,
Open my eyes to see Your love in all things.
Give me a deeper desire to share the grace of Jesus and to praise You more and more.
Grant me a spirit of sensitivity — to recognize and repent of my own imperfections, instead of being quick to fault his. Enable my husband to feel, through my words and actions, that he is respected and valued. Help me to be his faithful companion in prayer, to connect daily in oneness, and to meet life's many challenges together.

Closing Thought:

Prayer is not a small thing.

It is a vital, life-giving ministry that every wife can offer — unseen, but powerfully felt in her husband's soul.

May we embrace this privilege to love, serve, and intercede for the men God has entrusted to us.

BIBLICAL COUNSELLING MINISTRY

STRUGGLING WITH DEPRESSION OR ANXIETY?
MARITAL ISSUES?
SAME SEX ATTRACTION?
ANGER MANAGEMENT?
ADDICTIONS?

We live in a fallen world—and even God’s people are not spared from the effects of sin, pain, and struggle. But you don’t have to walk through it alone.

Biblical counseling is a safe, gospel-centered space to find help, hope, and clarity through God’s Word. It isn’t about fixing people—it’s about walking with one another in truth and grace. If you’re carrying anxiety, grief, relational tension, or just feeling stuck, you’re not weak—and you’re not the only one.
