RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

The Wind Blows as It Wishes

Article by Pastor Jason
Senior Pastor

“The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” (John 3:8)

A Night of Questions and Mystery

I can imagine a windy night as Jesus spoke with Nicodemus about the mysteries of salvation. Nicodemus was no ordinary man—he was a Pharisee, a respected teacher of the law, and a member of the Jewish ruling council. Yet despite his knowledge and status, he came to Jesus under the cover of night, seeking answers he could not find within his religious framework.

Perhaps as the wind swept through their hair during that evening conversation, Jesus pointed to it and declared, “The Spirit is like the wind.” It is unpredictable and untamable. It arrives unannounced and moves freely.

The Sovereign Movement of the Spirit

The Holy Spirit moves in human hearts—not according to our expectations, but according to His own sovereign will. We cannot command Him, and we cannot control Him. He acts as He pleases, in ways that are mysterious to us but perfectly wise and purposeful.

Yet even though the Spirit's ways are hidden, His work is unmistakable. Just as we know the wind is blowing when we hear the rustling of leaves or feel it brush against our skin, we recognize the Spirit's presence through the transformation of lives.

The Evidence of a Changed Life

The evidence of the Spirit's power is not always loud or dramatic. More often, it is quiet, steady, and undeniable: a hardened heart softened, a self-centered life reoriented toward God, a desire for sin replaced by a hunger for holiness.

To be born again is to be marvellously changed. A true child of God reflects the character of Christ and lives with a deepening desire to know, worship, and serve Him. A changed life is one moulded by the Spirit's power—one that bears witness to His quiet yet unstoppable grace.

Misconceptions About the Spirit's Work

This is important to remember because the work of the Holy Spirit is often misunderstood. Some associate Him only with miracles, emotional highs, or dramatic moments. But His most powerful work is often subtle—changing motives, producing spiritual fruit (Galatians 5:22–23), and shaping us into the image of Christ.

The Spirit doesn't merely create moments; He creates new people.

An Invitation to Reflect

Can the Spirit's work be seen in your life today? Are there areas where you've tried to take control instead of surrendering to the Spirit's leading? Remember, just like the wind, the Spirit's movement is invisible—but His effects are unmistakable.

May we welcome His sanctifying work—even when we don't always understand it—and trust that He is shaping us for God's glory and our good.
