INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

Imperfect But In Progress

Article by Pastor Jason Lim,
Senior Pastor

The Trouble with Perfectionism

Society often praises perfectionism as a virtue—something that drives success, sharpens thinking, and fuels achievement. But behind this ideal lies a burden: the nagging inner voice whispering, “You’re not good enough... smart enough... good-looking enough...” Perfectionism, when driven by self or worldly standards, can be deeply damaging. But God calls us to a different kind of perfection—a holy perfection.

A Biblical Reality Check

“For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out.” (Romans 7:18)

The apostle Paul expresses a reality every believer faces—the ongoing battle between our sinful nature and our new life in Christ. This honest confession helps us adjust our expectations for the Christian life.

Sanctification is not instant. It’s a lifelong process of becoming more like Christ.

Progress, Not Perfection

Because we live in a broken world and still carry a fallen nature, we will never achieve perfection this side of heaven. But that doesn’t mean we’re without hope. Scripture tells us we are being transformed "from glory to glory." Though we may stumble, true Christian growth is measured not by flawless performance, but by sincere, steady progression.

Hope for the Journey

True perfection will only come when Christ returns and fully redeems us—body and soul. Until then, we strive not for sinless perfection, but for sincere progression. So take heart: God is at work in you, even in your imperfections. Let His grace encourage you to keep moving forward in faith.
