INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

Can We Really Trust This Book?

Hanniel Sinon

Shepherd (Care Group, Filipino Congregation)

We live in a world drowning in voices—news feeds, influencers, podcasts, and endless opinions. In all this noise, how can we find a voice we can trust completely?

Belief in the Bible's divine origin is fading. Many treat it as helpful wisdom, not God's true, authoritative Word. Even Christians can read it only when convenient. As success and skepticism rise, fewer think God speaks through Scripture—and when its authority is lost, so is its transforming power.

That's why the doctrine of inspiration matters. To say the Bible is inspired means it is God-breathed—His very voice to us. Understanding that changes how we read, obey, and treasure His Word.

The Source—God's Breath, Not Man's Idea

Paul writes in 2 Timothy 3:16: "All Scripture is breathed out by God". The Bible didn't arise from human imagination or moral reflection. Its source is divine—God Himself.

Men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit" (2 Pet 1:21). Like sailors steering a wind-driven boat, human authors wrote while the Spirit supplied the power—so every word was what God intended.

"When you open Scripture, you are hearing the voice of God".

The Bible is therefore both human and divine—written by people, yet breathed by God. Its authority rests not on the writers' wisdom but on its divine Author. When you open Scripture, you are hearing the voice of God.

The Mode—God Worked Through Real People

God didn't dictate Scripture like a stenographer. He used each writer's voice—Moses as Moses, David as David, Paul as Paul—while the Spirit guided them so their words were fully God's.

This gives Scripture both depth and diversity—law and poetry, prophecy and letters, history and vision—yet all tell one unified story: God's plan to redeem humanity through Christ.

Inspiration is not mechanical but miraculous. The Bible is not just a record of people searching for God; it is God revealing Himself to people.

The Extent—Every Word Matters

How far does inspiration reach? Paul says all Scripture is God-breathed—not just the comforting parts or the teachings of Jesus, but every word from Genesis to Revelation.

Jesus Himself said, “Not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished” (Matt. 5:18). Every letter, every detail carries divine weight.

Our culture likes to pick and choose what to believe, but if only some of the Bible is trustworthy, then none of it truly is. Because all of it comes from God, all of it carries His authority.

The Purpose--To Transform, Not Just Inform

God gave us the Bible not merely to fill our minds with knowledge but to shape our hearts and lives. Paul continues in 2 Timothy 3:16–17: Scripture is “profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness”.

It teaches truth, exposes lies, corrects our direction, and trains us to live rightly. The goal is maturity—“that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work”. Therefore, every time we open it, God equips us for life and godliness.

So What?

If the Bible is truly the breath of God, we must treat it as such. We don’t stand over it as judges; we sit under it as disciples. We don’t pick and choose; we listen and obey.

John Calvin said, “The Scriptures obtain full authority among believers only when men regard them as having sprung from heaven”.

So, dig deep. Read it daily. Meditate on it. Obey it. Build your life on it. Because when Scripture speaks, God speaks—and His Word will stand forever.
