A large group of men, likely Jesus and his disciples, are gathered on a rocky, elevated area. They are dressed in traditional, simple robes and head coverings. The scene is set against a backdrop of a sunset or sunrise, with a warm, golden light. A large, white, cloud-like thought bubble is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the text "But it's too hard!".

But it's too hard!

It's not too hard!

Deuteronomy 30:11–14

For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off.

Deuteronomy 30:11–14

Deuteronomy 30:11–14

It is not in heaven, that you should say,
'Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us,
that we may hear it and do it?'

Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say,
'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us,
that we may hear it and do it?'

Deuteronomy 30:11–14

But the word is very near you.
It is in your mouth and in your heart,
so that you can do it.

Deuteronomy 30:11–14

But the word is very near you.
